Strict provisions of law for women's welfare: SC

The Supreme Court on Thursday said the strict provisions of law were for the welfare of women and not means to "chastise, threaten, domineer or extort" their husbands. A bench of Justices B V Nagarathna and Pankaj Mithal observed that a Hindu marriage was considered to be a sacred institution, as a foundation for a family and not a "commercial venture".

MLC Ravi held for derogatory remarks against Hebbalkar

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

THE 10-day winter session of the legislature ended on a sad note here on Thursday.

Soon after the Council was adjourned sine die, BJP MLC CT Ravi was arrested by Belagavi police on a complaint filed by senior PA of Women and Child Development Minister Laxmi Hebbalkar, alleging that he (Ravi) made derogatory remarks against her (Hebbalkar) in the House.

Security was tightened around Suvarna Vidhana Soudha as soon as the news became viral. Hebbalkar's supporters gheraoed Ravi at the soudha entrance, while some attempted to attack him inside the soudha premises. When the House was supposed to resume proceedings at 4 pm, Hebbalkar's supporters tried to enter the Council hall on the second floor of the soudha, raising slogans against Ravi. However, policemen foiled their attempt to enter the Council hall.

Rahul Gandhi visits BJP MP Pratap Chandra Sarangi who got injured in the clash | PTI

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE ongoing political face-off took an ugly turn on Thursday after the Opposition and the ruling BJP got into a 'pitched battle' outside Parliament over Union home minister Amit Shah's remarks on B R Ambedkar. Allegations flew thick and fast with both sides accusing each other of resorting to violence, which left two BJP MPs — Pratap Sarangi and Mukesh Rajput — in hospital with head injuries.

While the BJP alleged that Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi pushed their MPs, the Congress said its party chief Mallikarjun Kharge lost his balance after being pushed by the BJP's members.

"Rahul Gandhi pushed an MP who fell on me, after which I fell. I was standing near the stairs when Gandhi came and pushed an MP who then fell on me," Sarangi said. Both the MPs were admitted to Delhi's Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital.

Unprecedented scenes unfolded after the Opposition MPs and BJP members came face to face at the Makar Dwar, Parliament's main entrance. As announced in the morning, the Opposition INDIA bloc members marched from the Ambedkar Statue on Parliament's premises to the Makar Dwar. But at Makar Dwar, over 100 BJP members had already assembled with placards in their hands.

A commotion followed while Rahul along with some others tried to enter the Parliament House. In the melee, a few MPs fell down. Some of the Opposition MPs also climbed a wall near the gate.

While Parliamentary Affairs Minister Kiren Rijiju claimed that both MPs were seriously injured by Rahul and demanded his apology, the latter denied the charges. "I was trying to enter Parliament and the BJP MPs were stopping me, pushing me and threatening me," Rahul said.

While BJP's Anurag Thakur and Bansuri Swaraj rushed to the Parliament Street Police Station to file a complaint against Rahul, another allegation came from BJP MP S Phangnon Konyak, who accused Gandhi of 'misbehaving' with her. Shortly thereafter, Congress MPs also filed a police case against the BJP MPs for manhandling their leaders. Later, Kharge and 15 Congress MPs submitted letters to Speaker Om Birla demanding action against the BJP MPs who misbehaved with Rahul and Kharge.

Dy chair rejects notice to impeach Dhankhar

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

RAJYA Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh on Thursday dismissed the impeachment notice against Vice President and Rajya Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar. Terming the Opposition's bid an act of impropriety, Harivansh said the notice was drafted in haste and with the clear intent to tarnish Dhankhar's reputation and undermine constitutional institutions.

The three-page ruling, tabled in the House by Rajya Sabha Secretary General P C Mody, said the notice was flawed and lacked substantive evidence.

"A look at the notice reveals it could not be more casual and cavalier, wanting on every conceivable aspect and severally flawed—absence of addressee, absence of resolution text, incumbent Vice President's name not correctly spelt in the entire petition, documents and videos asserted not made part, premised on the links of disjointed media reports..." it noted.

DKS: GARBAGE MAFIA RULES CITY'S WASTE MGMT, WE ARE HELPLESS

'Visited Hyd, Chennai, will make 4 waste energy projects in 4 zones'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Belagavi

TERMING waste management authorities in Bengaluru city a mafia, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Thursday told the Legislative Council that the government plans to set up four large-scale plants to convert waste to energy in BBMP jurisdiction.

Replying to a question by members Keshav Prasad S and HS Gopinath on solid waste management problems in BBMP, Deputy Chief Minister Shivakumar said governments, whether JDS, BJP or Congress, had failed to resolve the issue because of the 'garbage mafia', but he will find a permanent solution to it.

Shivakumar said waste-to-energy projects of small capacity were inadequate to address the issue, and several had failed in the last couple of years. "I visited some projects in Hyderabad, Chennai and other places, and we are planning to establish four big waste energy projects in four zones of BBMP. We are also looking for land in a radius of 15km for the purpose," he said.

The deputy CM said contractors involved in solid waste management had formed a cartel and indulged in blackmail to get their funds released. "We have discussed the issue with Bengaluru legislators and they have agreed to find a permanent solution to tackle the garbage mafia. Only waste-to-energy projects with investment of up to Rs 2,000 crore can sustain. Soon after finalizing the plan, tenders will be floated," he said.

Replying to a query by Umashree that the government would be taking steps to increase the number of baby feeding centres, BJP members sought to set up bigger baby feeding centres and constructing more toilets.

New policy to protect BBMP's assets soon

Deputy CM Shivakumar on Thursday said a new policy to protect BBMP's municipal assets will soon be framed. Replying to a question in the Legislative Council by member Govindaraju, he said the policy will aim at a one-time settlement or ensure high revenue returns.

Govindaraju had questioned the steps taken to utilize municipal corporation assets in Bengaluru.

He said the policy is pending due to various technical issues. "Marriage halls, educational institutions and temples have been built on corporation land. Considering the complexity of the issue, we are contemplating coming up with a separate set of rules through a new policy to address the issue. In some cases, very low rent is paid," he said.

"The new policy will arrive at a one-time settlement to ensure revenue generation for the BBMP. We cannot take back land where temples have been built and it will be a one-time settlement by giving them the property considering the guidance value," he said.

The deputy CM said the new policy is in the final stages and will be announced soon after due consultation with experts.

Seminars held against skydeck, tunnel road

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

IN the wake of an online campaign by civic activist Kathyayini Chamaraj, citizens and civil service groups in Bengaluru are now rallying against a proposed big-ticket project championed by Deputy Chief Minister and Bengaluru Development Minister DK Shivakumar. Activists are gearing up to hold seminars and discussions to oppose the project, which they consider an ill-planned, ad-hoc initiative.

Former additional chief secretary A Ravindra revealed plans to submit a memorandum to CM Siddaramaiah and DCM and Bengaluru Development Minister DK Shivakumar, urging them to reconsider the project.

Prof Ashish Verma from IISc who conducted a study on Bengaluru's Mass Rapid Transport System (MSRT), stated that these projects could reduce ridership on existing MRTS lines like Metro.

Launching a scathing attack against DK Shivakumar, Sandeep Anirudhan, convenor of the Citizens' Agenda for Bengaluru said, "This is a great shame because, under the Mysuru administration, Bengaluru even had a Metropolitan Planning Council," he added.

Slamming the decision, civic activist Kathyayini Chamaraj who has begun an online petition against tunnel road and skydeck which are big-ticket projects involving over Rs 10,000, said, seminars are being held, asking people to raise their voices against such projects.

Members of Dalit Vidyarthi Parishat, Bangalore University Research Scholars' Association, and other groups stage a protest against Union Home Minister Amit Shah's remarks against Babasaheb Ambedkar at Freedom Park in Bengaluru | ALLEN EGENUSEJ

'Shah must issue unconditional apology to nation for remarks'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MEMBERS of Dalit Vidyarthi Parishat, Bangalore University Research Scholars' Association, Ambedkar Students' Association of GKVK, All India Students' Association and others protested against Union Home Minister Amit Shah over his alleged remarks against Dr BR Ambedkar. The protest was held at Freedom Park on Thursday.

Protestors demanded the resignation of Amit Shah by issuing a public apology. "Shah must issue an unconditional apology to the nation for his offensive remarks. Anything less would all the more signify the already significant complicity of the government in perpetuating caste-based discrimination and its unwillingness to respect the foundation values of our democracy," the protestors said.

The RSS's discomfort with Ambedkar comes at a time when there have been repeated calls from the extremist Hindu right-wing to amend or replace the Constitution. Shah's words trivialise the historical and ongoing struggles of Dalits, adivasis, and other marginalised communities who see Ambedkar as a beacon of hope and resistance and his vision of social justice as a guiding force, the protestors added.

Meanwhile, several PG students, researchers, teaching and non-teaching staff of Bangalore University staged a massive protest in front of the university's headquarter in Jnanabharathi.

Demanding apology from Amit Shah, the students also tried to burn the Union Home Minister's effigy, which was averted by the police.

IN view of numerous complaints received from the public, Lokayukta Justice BS Patil, Upa Lokayuktas Justice KN Phaneendra and Justice B Veerappa paid a surprise visit to offices of Bengaluru Electricity Supply Company (Bescom) and Bengaluru Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) across the city on Thursday.

In addition to this, the Lokayukta issued search warrants to 45 teams comprising judicial officers and police to conduct the search in the offices of Bescom and BWSSB.

MOHURS TO SILVER COINS: PASSIONATE TRIBUTE TO INDIAN MONEY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FOR more than 55 years, one man's unyielding passion has evolved into a spectacular historical treasure -- a paper currency museum, 'Rezwan Razack's Museum of Indian Paper Money', Brunton Road, in Bengaluru. It stands testimony to his remarkable journey.

The museum has gold mohurs from the Mughal era, radiant silver coins and an astonishing collection whose value today could easily run into thousands of crores. So profound is this collection that even the Reserve Bank of India took notice.

Former RBI governor Shaktikanta Das was so taken with the museum that a scheduled 30-minute meeting extended into an unforgettable three-hour conversation with Rezwan Razack.

Razack, a seasoned author of two books, is now preparing to release his third, which delves into the captivating world of Indian paper money of the princely state of Hyderabad.

Yet, building this extraordinary museum was no simple task. Razack recalls a particularly fascinating chapter in his journey: the acquisition of four rare pre-Independence currency notes-Rs 5, Rs 10, Rs 20, and Rs 100. The twist? The seller was located in Portugal! Undeterred by the geographical challenge, Razack arranged for a friend to collect the precious notes from Europe, adding them to his collection. His quest led him across cities like Bangalore, Delhi, Calcutta, Mumbai, and beyond, scouring hundreds of unique currency notes and coins from all corners of India.

Among the crown jewels of this collection is a 1860s Rs 20 note, which serves as a reminder of a time when Indian currency was accepted not only across India but also in Burma, and the territories that would later become Pakistan and Bangladesh.

Some of Razack's most prized acquisitions came from currency dealers in Bengaluru and Mumbai, often specializing in cut notes. He recalls how they would call him about rare finds, and he'd rush over without hesitation. Some notes were easy to acquire, while others required tough negotiations. The museum also showcases paper currency from the East India Company era and the period following the British Crown's takeover post-1857\58.

One of the museum's standout features is a currency shredder acquired from RBI, used to destroy notes, with jars filled with shredded remnants of old currency. These relics are notes from India's first demonetization in 1946, and the second in 1978. There's even a rare Rs 10,000 note from the British Raj, featuring sophisticated anti-counterfeiting security measures that are awe-inspiring to this day.

Perhaps the most remarkable pieces of all are currency notes from India's princely states: Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir as well as from former colonial regions such as Portuguese Goa and French-controlled Puducherry and Mahe. These coins and notes, steeped in history, are a notaphilist's ultimate dream, offering a vivid and unparalleled glimpse into the rich tapestry of India's diverse past.

PETER VIDAL

20th December: Friday is Venus' day. In ancient times Venus was known as the Queen of Heaven, such was the planet's splendour. We're not sure where that connection came from but its traditional meaning is that it's an auspicious moment for pursuing all affectionate Venusian activities, including falling in love, making friends and getting married.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
At the risk of opening up a few old wounds, you should face awkward issues at home. Mars, the planet of sharp and incisive thoughts, indicates that you should probe deeply, looking for the underlying causes. The Moon, meanwhile, urges you to be compassionate and tolerant of what you find.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Travel is always an emotional experience, partly because of the location of the sentimental sign Cancer in your solar chart. Therefore we may surmise that although you're going through a lively phase, nostalgic trips may be the most satisfying: there's nothing wrong with turning the clock back.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
By all means make a fuss and stamp your foot, especially if money is changing hands. It doesn't matter whether you're popping to the corner shop or moving a fortune around the world, you know what you want. And other people must listen! If they don't, then they'll lose out.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Yours is a dual sign, acutely sensitive one moment, pugnacious the next. You're going to combine both elements today, which means you'll have to pick your target carefully or rue the consequences. If you blame the wrong person then they'll be out to get their own back!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Deep within your psyche there lies a fair amount of anger. At the moment this is unconscious, but even buried feelings can distort your everyday behaviour, so do try not to take resentments out on people who have done nothing wrong, however strongly you feel.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
The whole emphasis in your chart is slanted towards public affairs, both social and professional. It therefore stands to reason that you will do your best if you are out in the world, meeting and overcoming new challenges. There's nothing to be gained from burying your head in the sand.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You may now begin to feel that the carpet is being pulled from under your feet at home. Don't be unduly concerned if you imagine that you are being undermined or pulled back to the past, for you will eventually see the benefits of a backwards step.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
What you really must do now is ensure that legal questions are faced fair and square. Also, get in touch with family members who are far away or overseas. And, lastly, do finalise travel plans, otherwise you'll find that you've missed the boat or lost your way!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You have to cope with so many personal changes that you may not have time to catch your breath. Rearranging social engagements is one thing, but you will probably do best to concentrate on necessities, like the money situation: it's time to settle your debts and balance the books.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Venus' profoundly pleasant relationship with Saturn is excellent from the financial stance, pointing to a steady increase in your earnings as a result of your own past efforts. It also encourages you to make personal vows: luck doesn't come into it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Saturn, a planet representing fate, is tied to your sign via an aspect signifying free will. This is therefore a profound moment which shows that your personal desires are harmonised with life's deeper purpose: it's your self-discipline which saves the day.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Although a financial transaction did not work out as hoped, you may have a chance to make up for lost ground over the coming four weeks. In the meantime, put extra effort into enjoyment. You owe it to yourself. And, as you know, if you don't help yourself, then nobody else will.

IIMB DIRECTOR, DEAN, SIX FACULTY MEMBERS FOUND GUILTY OF MINORITY RIGHTS VIOLATION

RISHITA KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE director, dean, and six other faculty members of the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore (IIMB) have been accused of violating the constitutional rights of minority students and staff, with serious allegations of caste-based discrimination and harassment.

These charges stem from a report, submitted to the principal secretary of the Social Welfare Department of Karnataka on November 26, by the Directorate of Civil Rights Enforcement (DCRE), which confirms that caste atrocities were committed by IIMB's leadership, including director Dr Rishikesha T Krishnan and dean Dr Dinesh Kumar. On December 9, the department instructed City Police Commissioner to register an FIR against the accused. However, action is yet to be taken.

The probe was triggered by a complaint from Gopal Das, associate professor of Marketing, who joined IIMB in 2018. It is said that although Das belongs to the Dalit community, he never sought reservation benefits and applied for the post based on his qualifications and merit alone. Recognised as one of the top 2% professors worldwide by Stanford University for five consecutive years, Das has been vocal about addressing caste-based discrimination within the institution.

As per the DCRE's report, the issue is beyond Das and it accuses Krishnan and Kumar of publicising Das' caste identity through mass emails, which contributed to creating a discriminatory and hostile work environment. The DCRE also noted that IIMB failed to establish a grievance redressal mechanism for SCs/STs members, as mandated by law.

The issue came to light after Das' promotion was put on hold due to harassment complaints made by doctoral students. IIMB initiated an inquiry into the matter, which included a committee member from the SC category. The inquiry confirmed that the students' complaints were valid.

IIMB, in a statement, claimed that Das received significant research and teaching incentives, including key leadership roles such as chairperson of the Institutional Review Board, member of the Career Development Services Committee, and member of the Diversity and Inclusion Committee. He has been allowed to teach courses of his choice across various academic programmes.

IIMB asserts that the delay in his promotion was due to the need to address harassment complaints, following standard institutional procedures. The allegations of caste-based discrimination only surfaced after his promotion was delayed, said IIMB. The institute maintains his promotion was withheld as part of the regular academic review process and not due to personal bias. IIMB said it has provided all evidence to the DCRE, though it has yet to receive a copy of DCRE report.

It also clarified that Diversity and Inclusion Grievance Redressal Committee at IIMB dismissed Das' allegations of harassment and discrimination, calling them unfounded.

Driver denied entry on NICE Road, abandons truck

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

TRAFFIC was affected for more than an hour on the NICE-Hosur Road near White Feather convention centre after the driver of a Nagaland registered 16-wheel truck parked the truck in the middle of the road and fled.

Sources said the truck was denied entry into the city, owing to the ban on the entry of heavy goods vehicles from 4.30 pm to 8 pm. The driver is also said to have argued with the policemen who tried to convince him to park the truck on the service road. As the driver had fled with the keys of the truck, traffic police had to use keys of other trucks to park it by the side. A FIR has been filed against the driver.

Police sources said the driver had parked the truck horizontally, ensuring that even a bike could not sneak in the gap. However, traffic police managed to divert vehicles to the service road. The other truck drivers gathered at the spot and co-operated with the police by giving their keys. The truck started with one such key and it was moved to the side. As the driver did not return, traffic police parked it in the vicinity of the Electronics City traffic police station.

"As the accused truck driver was hell-bent, the traffic police issued him a challan of Rs 2,000. Irked over the fine, the accused driver parked the truck on the main road and fled. The incident happened at 8 pm on Wednesday," said the police.

There were rumours that other truck drivers staged a protest by blocking the road, supporting the accused driver as he was reportedly caned by the traffic police. Shiva Prakash Devaraju, DCP (Traffic South) said the truck driver was not been beaten by the traffic police. "Everything has been recorded in the body-worn cameras of the traffic police. There were no protests by other drivers. The accused is yet to be traced," he added.

HC: Why shouldn't Bhovi scam be handed over to CBI?

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

Questioning the conduct of the State Government in neither summoning nor securing the accused in the alleged Karnataka Bhovi Development Corporation scam even though a case was registered 20 months ago, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday sought to know why the case should not be handed over to independent investigating agencies such as CBI. Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order after hearing the petitions filed by some of the accused to quash the proceedings against them.

The counsels of the accused alleged that four accused have not been summoned for questioning in the past 20 months. They have not even obtained bail for protection from arrest. Despite this, the accused were neither summoned nor secured for investigation, they alleged. Then the court observed that this was a fit case to be entrusted to an independent investigating agency, considering the slow pace of investigation into the alleged scam of over Rs 100 crore. The state government has to explain why the investigation should not be handed over to an independent agency. If the state fails to give an explanation on the next date of hearing, the court would be forced to pass orders, the judge said.

MATERNAL DEATHS

READY FOR JUDICIAL PROBE : DINESH

Minister says govt not shielding anyone and he's ready to face any action if found guilty

SUNIL PATIL @ Belagavi

KARNATAKA Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao on Thursday informed the Assembly that the State Government has taken serious note of the maternal deaths in Ballari government hospital and is ready to order a judicial probe to bring out the truth.

His statement in the Assembly comes a day after the BJP raised the issue in the House attacking the State Government over the recent maternal deaths in Ballari. "If I am found guilty, I am ready to face any action," Dinesh said, adding that there was no question of sparing the guilty.

"A total of 34 Cesarean deliveries were performed at Ballari government hospital on November 9, 10 and 11. Of these, seven women fell seriously ill, and five of them died. Immediately, a team of doctors from the Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences in Bengaluru was sent to Ballari. This team submitted its report on November 14, which found that the doctors at the hospital followed all the rules and there was no negligence on their part. It was found that the deaths occurred owing to the adverse effects of Ringer's lactate IV fluid given to the mothers after the Cesarean," Dinesh said.

Following this, the samples of the Ringer's lactate IV fluid supplied by Paschim Banga Pharmaceutical were sent for tests, and the report showed that the samples had endotoxic elements. Dinesh said that as the Ringer's lactate IV fluid supplied by the same company was sent to other hospitals in the state, an audit of the recent maternal deaths will be conducted.

"The government had received information about the quality of the IV solution in March and April. Those who were given this IV solution at Chitradurga District Hospital experienced chills. A few patients faced similar symptoms at Gundlupet Hospital. Taking a serious note of this, the State Government conducted tests at NABL and Karnataka State Medical Supplies Corporation Limited labs. It was found that the IV solution was of Not Standard Quality. Based on this, Paschim Banga Pharmaceutical was blacklisted, and the supply of 192 batches of Ringer Lactate IV solution supplied by the firm was stopped, the minister added.

The government had filed a case in court against the pharmaceutical company based on the quality test report from the Central drug laboratory, he said. However, NABL lab then reported that it was not substandard, he added.

"By June, the demand for Ringer's lactate IV fluid increased owing to a large number of dengue and other cases. The government then rechecked the quality of 192 batches of the fluid, held back 22 batches as they were of poor quality, and supplied the batches that cleared the tests to hospitals. No patient experienced any side effects in August, September and October. In the wake of this, the IV fluid from the same company was supplied to Ballari Hospital on November 9. After this, a series of deaths of women occurred," the minister elaborated.

Dinesh said that most pharma companies have set up separate units to manufacture drugs to export, and they follow all the international norms. "But the condition of the drugs supplied in India is deplorable. These pharma companies are influencing central and state drug regulatory agencies," he said.

SIDDARAMAIAH PROMISES STRICT ACTION

CM Siddaramaiah has said that strict action will be taken against anyone responsible for the maternal deaths reported at Ballari District Hospital. He said no wrongdoers would be spared, and action would follow after the government receives the investigation report from the judicial commission. Opposition members, dissatisfied with Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao's response to the discussion on the incident, demanded his resignation. In response, Siddaramaiah intervened, assuring the House that stringent action would be taken against those responsible, regardless of their position. The Chief Minister also stated that the government is open to suggestions from all parties to prevent similar incidents in the future. BJP members were dissatisfied with the response and staged a walkout.

Uproar in Assembly over Shah's remark on Dr Ambedkar

SUNIL PATIL @ Belagavi

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Thursday stepped up the attack on Union Home Minister Amit Shah for his recent comments on Dr BR Ambedkar in the Rajya Sabha.

Reading out a detailed statement in the assembly amid din by both BJP and the Congress MLAs over the issue, the CM claimed that Shah would have been a "gujari" (scrap dealer) if there was no Dr Ambedkar's constitution.

Siddaramaiah alleged that the main reason behind BJP and Sangh Parivar's hatred for Dr Ambedkar was the Constitution. The CM said that in 1927, Dr Ambedkar publicly burned the Manusmriti and 22 years later, he created a new Constitution. Siddaramaiah charged that the hatred of the BJP and the RSS for Ambedkar was not new.

Dr Ambedkar dedicated the Constitution to the country on November 30, 1949. Four days later, the RSS mouthpiece 'Organiser' wrote an editorial against the Constitution, the Chief Minister added.

Siddaramaiah further said that if Dr Ambedkar was not there, he and AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge would not have occupied high positions. Instead, he would have had to stay in his village grazing cattle, Siddaramaiah added.

Meanwhile, the Assembly on Thursday witnessed an uproar with the Ruling Congress MLAs demanding Union Home Minister Amit Shah's resignation over his recent remarks on Dr BR Ambedkar in the Rajya Sabha. To counter the Congress MLAs, BJP members raised slogans accusing the Grand Old Party of getting Dr Ambedkar defeated in elections. The House was adjourned thrice over the issue.When Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao was giving his reply to the question on the recent maternal deaths in Ballari government hospital, Congress MLAs raised slogans against Shah by displaying posters of Dr Ambedkar. They sought Shah's resignation and asked him to leave the country.

BJP MLAs displayed posters accusing the Congress of working against Dr Ambedkar in the past elections, blaming the party for the recent maternal deaths, and for imposing the Emergency. The BJP MLAs also tore papers and threw them into the well of the House.

The Speaker adjourned the session first at 11.30 am, then at 1.30 pm, and again at 2.30 pm.

AHINDA communities up in arms, to protest against Shah, Centre

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

DALIT organisations are planning to stage protests against Union Home Minister Amit Shah over his remarks on Dr BR Ambedkar. A protest will be staged at Freedom Park in Bengaluru on December 23.

The AHINDA (acronym for minorities, backward classes and Dalits) organisation on Thursday issued a statement saying it will take up a campaign against Shah, the Narendra Modi-led government at the Centre and the BJP.

"We will create an opinion against the RSS, which was always against the Constitution, and urge the state government to ban the organisation," said R Surendra, secretary of AHINDA 'chaluvali'. Senior DSS leader Mavalli Shankar said that along with Dalits, backward classes will join the campaign against Amit Shah until he resigns from his post.

In the 2023 assembly polls and 2024 Lok Sabha elections, a major section of AHINDA communities, including Dalits, had backed the Congress. But they were disillusioned by the Siddaramaiah government which failed to take firm decisions on issues of quota, especially the classification of SC quota. The multi-crore Maharshi Valmiki ST Development Corporation scam also dented the Congress government. Now, Shah's statement has come as a blessing in disguise for the government which is looking to capitalise on it, say analysts.

Dalit organisations were also upset over former PM HD Deve Gowda's advice in the Rajya Sabha, while participating in the debate on 'Glorious Journey of 75 Years of the Constitution of India' that Parliament should contemplate whether reservation should continue on the basis of caste or be changed to economic criteria.

"Psychologists say that true feelings sometimes come out in words unexpectedly. Amit Shah and Deve Gowda have expressed their feelings and opinions in Parliament, and revealed what is inside them," remarked S Murthy, a convener of AHINDA 'chaluvali'. "We need to rethink the way the state and country are moving forward by trusting them. We need to take these issues seriously, at least from the perspective of the future of AHINDA communities. Awareness, mass movements, and protests need to be organised," he suggested.

'Illegal Bangla immigrants a menace, STF will track them'

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS @ Belagavi

HOME Minister Dr G Parameshwara on Thursday said that illegal Bangladeshi immigrants are a menace, and a special task force has been created to identify and deport illegal Bangladeshis. Replying to a question by BJP member Arun, he said thousands of illegal immigrants arrive in India and move to various parts of the country.

"Despite our defence personnel's efforts to prevent them, they enter India. We have constituted a special task force to identify them. Thousands are deported every year. As of now, 159 Bangladeshi nationals and 24 Pakistanis who were residing illegally have been arrested," he said. He said 115 people, all from Bangladesh, are residing illegally with fake documents.

BJP's Arun questioned how many such illegal immigrants are residing in India, and said that the arrest of six individuals in Chitradurga has revealed that Karnataka has become a paradise for immigrants working in homestays and resorts.

"They turn to drug peddling and other illegal activities," he said. "It has been six years and no illegal immigrant has been externed." He said there are many contractors who supply labour, and bring them to work on coffee estates and other places.

Dr Parameshwara said the special force has been created to identify and deport Bangladeshi nationals. He said he is also speaking to the planters' association to identify such immigrants. Not just Bangladeshi immigrants, a few Africans who come to study have also gone missing, he added.

CONGRESS CONSPIRING TO TARNISH RAVI'S IMAGE: BJP

MEANWHILE, opposition MLCs told reporters that the allegations against Ravi were false and he did not make any derogatory remarks against Hebbalkar. They accused Congress legislators of conspiring to tarnish Ravi's image.

BJP MLC Arun said it was unfortunate that Ravi was attacked by some miscreants inside the soudha when the House was adjourned on Thursday afternoon. MLC Chennaraj Hattiholi said many MLCs, including Yatindra Siddaramaiah, had stated that they heard Ravi making derogatory remarks against Hebbalkar in the House.

DyCM, Ministers meet Horatti

Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar, ministers HK Patil, Eshwar Khandre, Priyank Kharge, Shivaraj Tangadagi, Dr Sharanprakash Patil, and senior leaders Bhosraju, BK Hariprasad, Nagaraj Yadav, Umashri, Nayana Motamma, Rupa Shridhar, Lata Mallikarjun, and Annapurna Tukaram met Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti and held a meeting over Ravi's remarks against Hebbalkar.

When the House resumed proceedings after three hours of drama and protests outside, Horatti read out a complaint filed by Hebbalkar and adjourned the House sine die.

Ravi and other opposition MLCs left the House even as Congress legislators raised slogans. A team of policemen arrested Ravi as he came out of the soudha.

Case referred to panel

Ravi's remarks against Hebbalkar echoed in the Lower House also. Congress legislators raised the matter and attacked opposition members, who defended Ravi. The House witnessed noisy scenes for sometime and Speaker UT Khader announced that the matter will be referred to the Privilege Committee. Even as opposition members questioned how could the Assembly refer the matter, which took place in the Upper House, to the Privilege Committee, Khader ignored it and adjourned the House sine die.

BJP stages protest

BJP legislators staged a protest outside the soudha after Ravi was taken away by the police. They denied allegations that Ravi made derogatory remarks against Hebbalkar and said he was attacked by her supporters inside the soudha. They hit out at the government for failing to provide security to legislators inside the soudha.

HOW IT ALL STARTED

The Legislative Council on Thursday witnessed chaos over the ruling party's demand for a discussion on Union Home Minister Amit Shah's alleged remarks against BR Ambedkar. Congress member BK Hariprasad stood up with a poster of Ambedkar and demanded that the matter be discussed in the House. However, Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti refused and asked him to wait until Question Hour ended. BJP members too demanded that a discussion be allowed on how Congress ensured the defeat of Ambedkar in the elections and what regards the Grand Old Party has for his ideology. They also demanded that the video of Shah's speech be screened in the House. After Zero Hour, Congress members sought a discussion on Shah's alleged remarks against Ambedkar. But Horatti refused, stating that Shah is not a member of the House. This led to chaos in the House with ruling and opposition members trading charges against each other. Meanwhile, an argument broke out between minister Laxmi Hebbalkar and BJP MLC CT Ravi. When Hebbalkar allegedly called Ravi a murderer, he made some derogatory remarks against her. (Subhash Chandra NS @ Belagavi)

BYV to Siddu: Don't misuse Ambedkar's name, resign & pave way for Dalit CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA BJP president and Shikaripura MLA BY Vijayendra on Thursday suggested Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to stop "misusing the name of Dr BR Ambedkar" and pave the way for a Dalit to become the state's CM.

"Siddaramaiah, who is mired in corruption, should have resigned as CM three months ago. You did not do that. Time has not yet passed... if you are really honest, resign and allow a Dalit to become the CM. Stop hatching political conspiracies and misuse the name of Babasaheb Ambedkar as the people of the country will not forgive you," Vijayendra said.

Addressing the media upon his return from New Delhi, Vijayendra hit out at the Congress, accusing it of insulting Dr BR Ambedkar. He said the Congress was misinterpreting the words of Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Dr Ambedkar by editing the video to project him in a bad light.

"If there is any party that has insulted Babasaheb Ambedkar, it is the Congress. You have defeated him in the Lok Sabha elections and hence have no right to speak about Dr Ambedkar," he said.

BY Vijayendra clarified that during his meeting with PM Narendra Modi, he did not discuss the issue of celebrating former CM BS Yediyurappa's birthday in a big manner as wished by his supporters.

"Prime Minister Modi listened to me calmly for about 15 minutes despite his work pressure... he gave some suggestions from the organisational point of view," he said. Vijayendra was scheduled to meet Union Home Minister Amit Shah but could not as the latter was busy in tackling the controversy that erupted following his recent statement on Dr BR Ambedkar, informed sources said.

₹6k cr to develop roads, spl package for B'luru

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Belagavi

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah announced an allocation of Rs 6,000 crore for the redevelopment of roads under the Public Works Department, as well as the Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Department. Additionally, he said that a special package will be announced to improve Bengaluru's roads.

In his response to an adjournment motion raised by a BJP member in the Assembly questioning the government spending on development projects, Siddaramaiah said that Rs 4,000 crore will be allocated under a separate head of account (Appendix E) in the Public Works Department, while Rs 2,000 crore will be earmarked for the development of rural roads. These funds would be released before March next year, he said.

When the Opposition sought a clarification on the funding for Bengaluru's roads, the CM explained that he has already discussed the matter with DyCM DK Shivakumar, who is also the Bengaluru Development minister.

Siddaramaiah further assured the House that the details of the funding would be disclosed soon.

Rejecting the Opposition's claims of economic mismanagement and development stagnating in Karnataka, Siddaramaiah emphasised that the state's capital expenditure was higher than that of neighbouring states. Despite acknowledging funding challenges, he pointed out that the 15th Finance Commission had unjustly withheld Rs 11,495 crore in special grants. He also mentioned that the Centre had failed to fund critical projects, such as the redevelopment of lakes and the construction of the Peripheral Ring Road in Bengaluru.

Further elaborating on the state's financial status, the CM noted that hius government has allocated Rs 88,867 crore in the budgets for 2023-24 and 2024-25, with approximately Rs 64,000 crore already spent to implement the five guarantees. Criticising the previous BJP government, Siddaramaiah accused them of approving projects worth Rs 2.09 lakh crore without making budgetary provisions, leaving unpaid bills amounting to Rs 29,006 crore. His government had already cleared Rs 18,018 crore of those pending bills, he added.

WILL TAKE STEPS TO ENSURE INCLUSIVE DEVELOPMENT OF NORTH K'TAKA, SAYS CM

BELAGAVI: CM Siddaramaiah said that the State Government will take necessary action for the inclusive development of North Karnataka, immediately after receiving a report from the Govindrao-led High Power Committee, which was set up to address regional imbalances arising from the implementation of Nanjundappa Committee recommendations. While replying to a discussion on the development of North Karnataka in the Assembly on Thursday, Siddaramaiah acknowledged that despite spending Rs 31,000 crore since 2013 on various development initiatives, progress in the region had not met expectations. He had previously promised to form a high-power committee to assess the existing regional disparities and that commitment has now been fulfilled. The CM said there is a significant disparity between North and South Karnataka in terms of infrastructure, particularly in health and education sectors. The Govindrao Committee report is expected to provide valuable insights on bridging these gaps, he said. The CM said his administration is committed to completing Upper Krishna Project Phase III. ENS

Clear med waste dumped in TN within 3 days, Kerala told

NGT takes stock of waste being disposed of in forests, waterbodies, and farms in Tamil Nadu in middle of the night

SV KRISHNA CHAITANYA
@ Chennai

THE southern bench of the National Green Tribunal (NGT) on Thursday directed the Kerala Government and its pollution control board to remove biomedical waste and mixed solid waste illegally dumped at multiple points bordering Tirunelveli district within three days, and file a compliance report on December 23. The NGT passed the order on a suo motu case hearing based on a TNIE article.

Hazardous biomedical waste is being frequently dumped from Kerala into Tamil Nadu. Truckloads of waste are reportedly being clandestinely disposed of in pristine forests, waterbodies, and farmlands in Tamil Nadu in the middle of the night by miscreants from Kerala. Earlier, dumping was reported from Annamalai, Theni, Nanguneri, and now it has been dumped in four locations -- Kodaganallur, Palavoor, Kondanagaram, and Sivalarkulam - all in Tirunelveli district.

The biomedical waste was from the Regional Cancer Centre (RCC) in Thiruvananthapuram and Credence Private Hospital, while municipal waste was from the Leela Kovalam. The NGT has issued notices to all the three establishments, apart from environment and health departments of both states for failing to curb the illegality.

The green bench comprising Justice Pushpa Sathyanarayana and expert member K Satyagopal said Kerala should either take back the waste or enter into an MoU with a Common Biomedical Waste Treatment Facility in Tamil Nadu for safe disposal. "The waste dumped must be removed immediately," the bench said, setting a deadline of three days to act.

Tamil Nadu government pleader D Shanmuganathan said the Kerala State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) did not comply with the tribunal's earlier order in June this year, where it was asked to pay Rs 69,000 incurred by the local body to remove the waste dumped on the roadside of Nanguneri.

Meanwhile, Tamil Nadu Pollution Control Board (TNPCB) officials told TNIE that a detailed assessment was being done to estimate the quantum of biomedical waste dumped. TNPCB counsel Sai Sathya Jith said the chairperson of TNPCB wrote to the chairperson of KSPCB on December 18, demanding legal action against RCC and others, besides beefing up monitoring along the borders. Two FIRs were registered by the Suthamalli police against the establishments under Sections 271 and 272 of the BNS, Section 15(1) of the Environment Protection Act, and Section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Open Places (Prevention of Disfigurement) Act.

VK Rema Smrithi, counsel for KSPCB, accepted that the waste dumped was from Kerala, and she said criminal proceedings would be initiated against those responsible. "I am told some unauthorised waste collectors, who are not recognised by the state government, were indulging in this illegality."

HC extends deadline for Lokayukta to submit report on MUDA scam

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday extended the December 24 deadline to January 28, for submission of the investigation report by Lokayukta police into alleged irregularities in the allotment of 14 compensatory sites to BM Parvathy, wife of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, by Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA).

Justice M Nagaprasanna orally observed that it is very shocking to know that the emergent notice issued by court was not served to the chief minister, whose address is Vidhana Soudha, opposite the high court, even after 35 days. He passed an interim order while adjourning hearing of the petition filed by social activist Snehamayi Krishna, seeking directions to transfer the investigation to Central Bureau of Investigation on January 15, 2025, with directions to all respondents to file objections.

Before this, the court passed an interim order of stay for further investigation. However, senior advocate Prof Ravivarma Kumar, representing Siddaramaiah's wife Parvathy, objected to the interim order passed on Thursday, and said the earlier interim order passed by court to submit the report of the progress of the investigation on the ground that despite notice being not served to his client Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and others and also to the interim order of stay. It is not understandable as to how these orders were passed suomotu by the court in haste and such orders were obtained by misleading this court, he alleged.

Senior counsel K G Raghavan, representing Snehamayi Krishna, raised serious objections to the submissions made by Prof Kumar and justified the interim orders passed by court.

LAKSHMAN QUESTIONS SNEHAMAYI'S SOURCE OF FUNDING

MYSURU: KPCC spokesperson M Lakshman on Thursday raised serious allegations against social RTI Snehamayi Krishna. Responding to Krishna's complaint with the Lokayukta about two individuals allegedly offering him a bribe, Lakshman questioned the source of funding for him to take up legal battles and his accommodations. Addressing the media on Thursday, Lakshman said Krishna claims two people approached him with bribes. "He has filed a baseless complaint to the Lokayukta, seeking to transfer the MUDA case to the CBI. But where is the full footage of the alleged incident? He has only provided footage from 10:30 am. Let him produce the recordings for the entire day. We also have footage, which we will hand over to the police," Lakshman said. He further alleged that Krishna's campaign is being funded by unknown entities, suggesting that he is merely a "side actor" in this political drama while the actual "director and producer" remain hidden. ENS

TUMAKURU: The Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board's (KIADB) notice to Siddaganga Mutt to pay ₹70 lakh as electricity charges for drinking water supply despite that project not taking off, has drawn criticism from opposition parties and devotees of the mutt. Industries Minister MB Patil clarified that the notice will be withdrawn. The matter was raised by some BJP legisla-tors. "We have immense respect for Siddaganga Mutt. If the notice was given to the mutt for not using water, we will suspend the officer concerned. In the coming days, we will provide water to the mutt free of cost. Panchamasali seer calls off protest

BANSY KALAPPA
@ Bengaluru, Belagavi

PANCHAMASALI Lingayat community's agitation, which showed all signs of turning intense with each passing day, seems to have subsided for now with Kudalasangama pontiff Jaya Mrutyunjaya Swamiji calling off the protest on Thursday.

Exhausted after a day's fasting, the pontiff ended his protest after Panchamasali Lingayat leaders, including former minister CC Patil persuaded him to do so. The pontiff launched an indefinite hunger strike on Thursday in protest against the police crackdown on Panchamasali Lingayat agitators in Belagavi a few days ago.

Panchamasali Lingayats' protest seeking an apology from the state government for its "heavy-handed" response captured public attention with the pontiff going on hunger strike. However, tensions ran high till MLA Vijayanand Kashappanavar's intervention.

Kashappanavar told The New Indian Express that he was with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on the day the protest was launched. Despite sending three ministers to convince the protesters to withdraw their agitation, the pontiff and his supporters refused to meet with them. This seems to be to send a bold message that the government was "anti-Lingayats".

In an attempt to end the impasse over their demand for reservation, Siddaramaiah has convened a meeting of Panchamasali Lingayat legislators from all parties on December 21. Kashappanavar, who played a key role in facilitating this meeting, said, "It's a step in the right direction."

The community's demand for reservation may not be resolved soon. Kashappanavar highlighted the complexities surrounding the issue and stated that with the case still pending in court, it would be impossible for the government to meet the community's demand at this stage.

However, conflicting statements over the issue, particularly from BJP MLA Basana Gouda Patil Yatnal, have shocked many.

Senior Panchamasali leader HS Shivashankar stated that the withdrawal of protest is only a temporary respite for the government.

THE ethical concerns around Artificial Intelligence (AI) are serious and genuine and are not being addressed to the extent they should be. "We are in an AI hype cycle with scant empirical data on how it will help us mitigate deep-seated and critical societal and developmental issues. The perceived benefits of AI and Large Language Models (LLMs) at the moment are more in the nature of conjectures and need backing with solid evidence of impact on the ground, especially when it comes to under-served and marginal social groups," Prof Amit Prakash, head of the department, Digital Humanities and Societal Systems (DHSS), International Institute of Information Technology - Bangalore (IIIT-B) told TNIE.

On November 26, former OpenAI employee Suchir Balaji (26), who had openly criticised his former company's practices, was found dead in his San Francisco apartment. Balaji had raised concerns around the ethics and use of copyrighted materials to train generative AI models like ChatGPT. "His (Balaji) concerns around sourcing of data, ethics are genuine and not unfounded. What data is being used to train AI generative models? Is there a robust consent mechanism? The issue of possible copyright infringement is real and needs to be addressed," said Prakash.

The senior researcher elaborated that while there are laws in India and several other countries on IT and data protection as well as guidelines on ethical AI by multilateral organizations like Unesco (UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation) and professional bodies like IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers), the "institutional arrangements to implement and enforce them are still in infancy. There is a huge vacuum there". In India, the rules for the Digital Personal Data Protection (DPDP) Act, 2023, are still to be formulated.

"The unqualified and almost universal claims that AI, especially LLMs, will change things for the better for entire humankind need to be subjected to greater critical scrutiny. It is not entirely clear how and what kind of AI will help mitigate maternal deaths, child malnutrition, and lead to improvements in the state of primary health centres (PHCs) and anganwadis etc. in India's hinterland. We don't have solid examples of benefits yet. These are intense people-centric domains for which the state has to devise and implement policies, keeping people at the centre. Moreover, there is a need for greater transparency and acknowledgement of diverse perspectives, which is lacking in current brand AI," added Prakash.

"The fascination with AI appears to derive more from a top-down and centralised approach. Questions which Balaji is attributed to have raised on the source and use of data for creating generative AI models often go unattended, perhaps because of the hype of inevitability that is being created around AI. Looks like many people are joining the bandwagon more out of fear of being left out. Technologies promising to help the marginal sections of society and mankind at large are generally put under stringent scrutiny and regulatory oversight; so should AI and LLMs. Doubts and dilemmas around them need clear answers and resolution strategies. They should not be pushed over in the name of impacting 'innovation'," added Prakash.

PARLIAMENT NEEDS TO SHUN THE SHAMEFUL 'GRAMMAR OF ANARCHY'

THURSDAY'S unprecedented fracas on parliament premises over the home minister's remarks about B R Ambedkar was a new low in Indian democracy. It should have been avoided at any cost. The acrimonious face-off between members from the ruling NDA and the opposition took an ugly turn with claims of assault from either side of the aisle and police complaints registered against lawmakers on both sides. What transpired was shameful for the largest democracy in the world, whose foundation is owed in no small measure to Mahatma Gandhi's principle of non-violence.

The animosity between the two sides that spilled out in the open would never have happened had the lawmakers addressed their differences with maturity and sat across the table to resolve them, as is expected of them. Parliamentarians, of all people, should never take the law into their own hands. As the saying goes, what would happen to the crop if the fence were to eat it? The adversarial engagement between the NDA and INDI Alliance has reduced what needed to be a serious engagement on critical issues, bills and policies into a binary fight between the two sides. Parliament's time is extremely precious; for it to be squandered in such a squabble in the sanctum sanctorum of the nation's democracy is a sheer waste. Whatever happens with the charges and counter-charges on MPs on the streets outside, we hope that Thursday's violence would not roll over into a scuffle in parliament on Friday, the last day of the winter session.

Ironically, Ambedkar's reflection on the relevance of productive discussion while drafting the Constitution resonates on a day a conflict over his relevance has blown up. "The task of the Drafting Committee would have been a very difficult one if this Constituent Assembly had been merely a motley crowd, a tessellated pavement without cement, a black stone here and a white stone there in which each member or each group was a law unto itself. There would have been nothing but chaos." Our lawmakers need to go back to the classroom to learn a lesson or two in parliamentary propriety and constitutional morality. Dissent is healthy for a democracy. Parliament should give up what Babasaheb called "the grammar of anarchy" for the sake of India's democracy.

SRI LANKAN PRESIDENT'S VISIT TICKS MOST BOXES

SRI Lankan President Anura Kumara Dissanayake's promise of continuity with change and saying what India wanted to hear on security relations ought to have eased concerns in New Delhi about the Marxist-leaning leader's new regime. For, India is dealing with a new player who came from the fringe after the Aragalaya uprising two years ago and won a massive mandate through the democratic process, pushing all established players to the sidelines. Dissanayake's assurance that Sri Lanka would not be used in any manner detrimental to Indian interests made national headlines, though it was just a reiteration of its longstanding policy.

What stood apart this time was that the statement came from a coalition that had spewed anti-India vitriol over the years. Coming as his visit did in the wake of another regime change in the neighbourhood that resulted in frayed bilateral ties, the anxieties were set at rest by Dissanayake taking the pragmatic middle road. He acknowledged New Delhi's proactive first responder role during any emergency, like the $5-billion aid given so far ever since the Covid pandemic broke the back of his nation's economy, and its positive role in talks on multilateral debt restructuring. The joint statement also spoke about an open, safe and secure Indian Ocean region, which was read in the context of China's territorial expansionism and the knotty issue of berthing research ships for spying against India in Sri Lankan ports. It would be interesting to see how he nuances that position further when he visits China next month.

The implementation of the 13th Amendment to the Sri Lankan Constitution, a fixture in past joint statements on Tamil rights, was missing this time since Dissanayake is against it. Narendra Modi, in the softest of touches on the hot-button Tamil issue, said, "We hope that Sri Lanka will fully implement the Constitution and will fulfil its commitment to hold provincial council elections." On territorial violation and overfishing, both sides agreed on a humanitarian approach by factoring livelihood concerns and using the dispute resolution mechanisms already in place. Most development proposals to enhance and deepen economic and security ties took past engagements forward. On balance, the Sri Lankan president made a win-win visit, while India continues with painkiller medication to deal with the Bangladesh migraine.

QUICK TAKE

MAKE THE RIGHT CALL

OVERLAYING one map on another can reveal a stark pattern. There was such a moment on Thursday when the government shared data in the Rajya Sabha on teledensity across the country. The states with the lowest teledensity are also the poorest in the country. Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand and Uttar Pradesh all fared at least a tenth below the national average of 86 percent. The government also assured that Digital Bharat Nidhi's work of improving connectivity in rural, remote and hilly areas through installation of more mobile towers—a scheme running for more than two decades—is going apace. What's needed is its speedier expansion in the poorest districts.

South Korea has clawed back most of the economic losses caused by the shocking declaration of martial law. Its next president is likely to be colder to the West, warmer to China

TREMORS FROM THE LONG NIGHT OF DECEMBER 3

SANDIP KUMAR MISHRA

Professor, Centre for East Asian Studies, JNU

SOURAV ROY

THE night of December 3 was scary for South Koreans, to say the least. The world's 12th largest economy, which has also been a vibrant democracy in recent decades, was plunged into a shocking crisis. In a baffling move, President Yoon Suk-yeol announced emergency martial law in the dead of the night—the first in the country in over four decades—and sent troops to the National Assembly.

Fortunately, enough number of lawmakers were able to reach parliament and vote out the martial law in only six hours. Whereas Yoon justified his act as just a warning to the opposition members who were blocking his policies and appointments—and generally making governance difficult—there is no doubt that he crossed all the limits.

It may be true that after the opposition secured 192 of the 300 seats in the National Assembly in April 2024, Yoon was feeling frustrated because he was not able to get several of his bills passed. But the extreme step he took is largely attributed his own autocratic way of dealing with democratic contestations.

Yoon was a prosecutor before he got an opportunity to become presidential candidate from the conservative People's Power Party in 2022. His inexperience in democratic politics—which is a domain of give-and-take, compromises and, more importantly, tolerance for dissent—led him to become increasingly unpopular in South Korea. Rather than rectifying his mistakes, he tried to run over dissent. In foreign and domestic policy-making too, it has been alleged that did not take along popular opinion and has been too 'bold' in his alignment with the West.

The declaration of martial law was, basically, a move in desperation and delusion. It not only shocked South Koreans, but also enraged them. Soon, people took over the streets and the National Assembly proposed an impeachment motion. The first impeachment motion, which was voted on December 7, did not succeed as People's Power Party members did not participate in the proceedings. But the second impeachment motion was successfully passed by the National Assembly a week later.

The matter has gone to the Constitutional Court, which will decide the final fate of Yoon in the next few months. Meanwhile, most presidential powers have been delegated to Prime Minister Han Duk-soo. In all likelihood, if the Constitutional Court judges are not divided on ideological lines—their nomination is being debated at present—it would be an open-and-shut case and Yoon is going to be removed from the presidential office.

After his final removal from the post, election to choose a new president is required to be held within two months. It is likely to herald a return of the centre-left Democratic Party. This would mean a president who would be less inclined to be as unabashedly supportive of the US and Japan as Yoon was, and more accommodative of engagement with China.

One may say that another bout of authoritarian era in South Korea has been avoided largely because of the people's vigil and resolve, apart from the armed forces' cooperation. But it could also be said that a huge damage has been done to its political and economic credentials.

South Korea has experienced long periods of authoritarian politics in the past and was able to have a democratic set-up only in 1987. It earned strong democratic credentials with the course of time, but the declaration of martial law revived old memories and images. It would have implications for domestic politics, but hopefully not too much for the South Korean economy.

It was never expected that the mayor of Seoul would have to release an advertisement saying 'Seoul is safe' and appeal to foreign tourists not to change their plans of visiting the capital. It shows that the martial law incident has affected how the world is viewing the country.

The economic fallout

The short-term effect of the declaration was seen in the financial market—the KOSPI market index, which was at 2500 on December 3, dipped to 2360 by the 9th, the lowest in a year; the KOSDAQ, similar to the Nasdaq in the US, moved down from 690 to 627, which was its lowest in five years. Fortunately, after almost a week of downturn, both of them bounced back to 2482 and 683 by December 12.

Meanwhile, individual investors sold almost $700 million worth of stocks on the day after martial law was declared, but the trend has gradually been reversed. South Korea's small businesses reported a 90 percent fall in sales soon after December 3, but things have since been improving.

The country's currency won also fell to its lowest level in the last two years, but stabilised later. The South Korean central bank has been trying to maintain liquidity in the market through special repo operations, and has announced a stock market stabilisation fund.

The finance minister had assured foreign investors and the international community that South Korea's economic fundamentals are strong, and productions as well as exports are not going to be affected by the brief upheaval. He suggested that for the same reason, the country's credit rating must remain the same. In a way, he is right—around the time the impeachment motion passed on December 14, many of the short-term economic setbacks were restored to pre-martial law levels. However, if the impeachment issue drags on in the Constitutional Court, it may have a deeper impact on the economy, as decision making in the transition would be largely on an ad hoc basis.

Once Yoon is formally removed and a new president is elected, in all probability, the transitory problems of the economy will be fully overcome. However, though the low growth rate and fear of stagnation in the economy, visible in the revision of the growth rate for 2025 from 2.2 to 2.0 percent, remains to be addressed. The country also needs to assure the international community and foreign investors that such a political turmoil would not occur again.

It could be concluded that the impact of the martial law and the impeachment process—though utterly shocking—would not have any long-term negative effect on the country's economy. But that now depends, first, on the efficiency of its judicial process.

FOR GRACE IN LEGAL EVOLUTION

SAAI SUDHARSAN SATHIYAMOOTHY

Advocate, Madras High Court

THE recent decision of a nine-judge bench of the Supreme Court, in Property Owners Association vs State of Maharashtra, which interprets Article 39(b) of the Constitution, represents a noteworthy development in the complex and often contentious history of property rights in India. In deciding that not all private property forms part of the "material resources of the community" available for distribution by the state, the court has sought to achieve a nuanced balance between the conflicting demands of individual rights and the state's obligation to ensure economic justice for all.

The judgement, apart from exemplifying the SC's ever evolving take on the characteristics and extent of property rights within a socialist democratic republic, is a reflection of the changing attitude of the ruling dispensation towards some conflicts that have underpinned this discourse since the inception of our republic.

In Property Owners, the court addressed a long-standing debate over the interpretation of Article 39(b), specifically the phrase "material resources of the community". The judgement carries special significance for its potential impact on future legislation. It refutes the interpretation that all privately owned resources automatically fall under the ambit of "material resources of the community", an interpretation championed by Justice V R Krishna Iyer in the Ranganatha Reddy case and subsequently followed in the Sanjeev Coke case.

It clarifies that while private resources can be considered "material resources of the community" in specific contexts, this is not an automatic categorisation. By rejecting this broad interpretation, the Court, in a way, reaffirms the importance of individual property rights while acknowledging the state's role in regulating resources for the common good. The judgement, however, also has significant implications for judicial discipline and the treatment of minority opinions.

The majority judgement by Justice D Y Chandrachud, apart from substantially diluting the power of the state to initiate land reforms and redistribution measures in future, has created considerable debate regarding Justice Krishna Iyer's approach to the phrase, which the former chief justice has obdurately labelled as the Justice Krishna Iyer Doctrine. The judgement states that Justice Iyer's approach had been influenced by a particular social philosophy and economic ideology. Justice Chandrachud opines, "The doctrinal error in the Krishna Iyer approach was postulating a rigid economic theory, which advocates for greater state control over private resources, as the exclusive basis for constitutional governance... a single economic theory, which views the acquisition of private property by the state as the ultimate goal, would undermine the very fabric and principles of our constitutional framework."

EXPRESS

Legal interpretation evolves with society; a new reading need not invalidate an earlier approach. Justice D Y Chandrachud's majority decision in a property rights case earlier this year did not allow that space to Justice V R Krishna Iyer's interpretation of the subject

These comments, as noted by Justice Nagarathna, are unwarranted and unjustified. Both her and Justice Dhulia's opinions significantly focus on and present compelling arguments against the criticism levelled at Justice Iyer's approach. The majority judgement ignores the historical context of his judgements. For the drafters, the Constitution was an engine of change. Justice Iyer was a champion jurist who viewed the Constitution as a vehicle for social revolution. To suggest that their approach did a "disservice" is not only erroneous but also risks erasing a significant chapter in our constitutional history.

What is more troubling is what is not found in the majority's final judgement. While the dissenting judgements quote in extenso from a "proposed" judgement of the former chief justice, where he is said to have opined that "[the] Krishna Iyer doctrine does a disservice to the broad and flexible spirit of the Constitution," that observation is curiously absent from the final version. Truly, the transition towards liberalisation, privatisation, and globalisation that has occurred since the 1990s cannot lead to the characterisation of the judges from the past "as doing a disservice to the Constitution".

Legal interpretation naturally evolves with society. The transition from socialist principles to market liberalisation represents a gradual shift in collective thinking rather than the invalidation of earlier approaches. Harsh criticism of past judicial philosophies risks erasing important chapters of constitutional history that contributed to India's development and would be in ignorance of what Hans-Georg Gadamer termed the "hermeneutic circle"—that our understanding is inevitably shaped by our own historical consciousness.

Early SC decisions favouring land redistribution reflected the immediate post-independence need to address economic disparities. Progressive judgments protecting workers' rights and the expansive reading of fundamental rights by judges in the 1970s and 1980s was influenced by the need to protect vulnerable sections of society.

Whatever may be the case, Justice Chandrachud's decision marks an acceptance of the general societal shift from viewing all private property as community resources. And in many ways, his tenure is a culmination of the neoliberal consensus that dominated India's political economy for the past three decades. His faith in liberty, private enterprise and globalisation is evident in his decisions on economic matters.

He will be remembered as a champion of individual liberties and progressive values. His judgements decriminalising same-sex relationships, on the right to privacy, and the scope of the right to life are rightly hailed as watershed moments. However, for someone who has been deeply conscious of his legacy, what is clear is that Justice Chandrachud stands as a transitionary figure. With all his many successes, faults and failures, he is emblematic of a neoliberal and conservative India coming to terms with a changed society and the false promises and pretenses that animated its past.

BJP tears into Rahul, says doesn't deserve to be LoP...

... meanwhile, Cong slams BJP's 'distraction politics'

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

ACCUSING Congress leader Rahul Gandhi of pushing and shoving its MPs on the Parliament premises, the BJP on Thursday said he does not deserve to be the Leader of Opposition after such "indecent and shameful" conduct.

Addressing a press conference at the BJP headquarters hours after unprecedented scenes of unruliness unfolded during protests by the ruling and opposition parties, Union minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan squarely blamed Gandhi for the fracas.

"Rahul Gandhi does not deserve to hold the post of the Leader of Opposition," Chouhan said as he slammed the Congress leader's behaviour and alleged it is against India's cultural ethos.

Gandhi has rejected the BJP's charge that he pushed its MPs and alleged that the ruling party MPs "stopped, threatened and intimidated" him.

Chouhan said the party was also pained at the treatment meted out to its tribal MP from Nagaland S Phangnon Konya, who alleged in the Rajya Sabha that Rahul Gandhi shouted at her after coming in "close proximity" that made her feel uncomfortable during a demonstration outside the Parliament's Makar Dwar.

"Will physical strength be used in Parliament? Will musclemen and goondas come to Parliament? In which direction is the Congress taking the country's democracy?" asked the BJP leader, who was flanked by Union minister Piyush Goyal and party MPs Anurag Thakur and Anil Baluni.

"Will physical strength be used in Parliament? Will musclemen and goondas come to Parliament? In which direction is the Congress taking India's democracy?" asked Shivraj Singh Chouhan, flanked by Union minister Piyush Goyal and MPs Anurag Thakur and Anil Baluni.

BJP MPs — Pratap Sarangi and Mukesh Rajput — were injured in the melee and hospitalised as the ruling and opposition MPs allegedly marched towards each other minutes before the start of the parliamentary proceedings.

"What happened in Parliament today is unimaginable," Chouhan said as he accused Gandhi of pushing the BJP members, terming his conduct as "indecent, impudent and goondagardi".

Chouhan claimed that when the BJP MPs were protesting, Gandhi deliberately approached them and insisted on passing through them instead of using the space left on one side of the staircase of the Makar Dwar, used by members to enter and exit the building. He did this despite the security personnel requesting him to use the space left for the parliamentarians' entry, the minister alleged.

Chouhan said people elect their leaders to Parliament with the hope that they will put forth their issues with facts and logic.

"But the Congress is changing it," he said and asked, 'Will physical strength be used in Parliament?"

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

HOURS after the Parliament showdown, Congress on Thursday launched a blistering attack on the BJP, accusing it of diverting attention from Home Minister Amit Shah's "insult" to BR Ambedkar.

Addressing a joint press meet at the AICC headquarters in the capital, Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge and LoP in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi condemned Shah's remarks on Ambedkar and demanded his resignation and an apology.

Gandhi said while the Congress had sought Shah's resignation, it had not been granted. He added, "Today again Shah tried to divert the issue".

He explained that Congress MPs were peacefully marching from Ambedkar's statue to Parliament when BJP MPs blocked their entry on the stairs. He insisted that Amit Shah has insulted Ambedkar and should apologise and resign.

"The main issue that the BJP wants to erase is the Adani case, on which they do not want any discussion. Narendra Modi is selling India to Adani," Gandhi told reporters.

Narrating the events of the day, he said they wanted to go inside Parliament, but BJP leaders came and sat at the gate to "stop us". He said that women MPs of the INDIA bloc were also prevented from entering. Gandhi also denied the BJP's allegations that he pushed the MPs, causing injuries.

"They must release the CCTV footage," he demanded. The Congres leader said the BJP-RSS thinking is "anti-Constitution" and "anti-Ambedkar".

"We were moving peacefully from Ambedkar's statue to Parliament. BJP MPs were standing on the steps of the Parliament and not letting us inside. Amit Shah has insulted Ambedkar, he must apologise and resign. The main issue that the BJP wants to erase is the Adani case," said Rahul Gandhi.

Kharge said they would continue to protest across the country and that a movement against this had already begun. "The BJP wants to divert attention from Shah's remarks on Ambedkar and that is why they are raising other issues," Kharge told reporters.

He said the Congress leaders were only demanding the resignation of home minister and protesting "in support of our demands, but the BJP MPs blocked us from entering Parliament".

"They pushed me, I lost my balance and sat down," the Congress chief said, adding that he condemns Shah's remarks on Ambedkar.

"The BJP is indulging in distraction. We want the apology and resignation of the home minister over his remarks on Ambedkar," Gandhi said, adding that they would continue to raise their demand and the Adani issue.

"When we were walking towards the Makar Dwar of Parliament, these people were making fun of us. The kind of environment that the BJP has created in the country will not be tolerated anymore. Because of this, a movement is being carried out across the country," he said, "We have not been disturbing the House proceedings. We protested outside for 14 days."

X E-MAIL ASKS CONG LEADERS TO DELETE AMIT SHAH VIDEO

Congress leader Supriya Shrinate on Thursday claimed that social media platform 'X' has told them through an e-mail that the Ministry of Home Affairs and the IT Ministry asked them to remove the video of Amit Shah as it violates Indian Laws. Speaking to reporters, Shrinate said "This is the mail that 'X' has written to us — INC, Jairam Ramesh, me and others. They say that Ministries of Home Affairs and Information & Broadcasting have written to them that Shah's video be removed because it violates the law of India. Which law of India is being violated? Twitter has made it clear that they are not doing it because they protect the right to express but they wanted to inform us about this under transparency," Supriya said. "What is Amit Shah scared of? What is he trying to hide? What kind of words are being used?" she added.

I was physically pushed by BJP MPs, lost my balance & forced to sit down: Kharge

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

CONGRESS chief Mallikarjun Kharge on Thursday wrote to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla, saying that BJP MPs pushed him on Parliament premises, and he lost his balance.

Kharge asked the Speaker to order an inquiry into the BJP MPs "pushing" him, saying it was an assault not just on him but on the Rajya Sabha LoP and the Congress president.

"I was physically pushed by BJP MPs; lost my balance and was forced to sit down on the ground in front of Makar Dwar," Kharge's letter said.

His remarks came after a scuffle broke out between the opposition and NDA MPs on the Parliament premises over Home Minister Amit Shah's comments on BR Ambedkar. BJP MP Pratap Chandra Sarangi was hospitalised after he suffered injuries in the brawl. The BJP accused Rahul Gandhi of pushing the senior member, a charge rejected by the Congress leader.

Trouble began when the INDIA bloc members insisted on entering Parliament through the BJP MPs holding a protest instead of the space left empty on one side of the staircase of the Makar Dwar, used by members to enter and exit the building.

At least 15 senior Congress LS MPs also wrote to Speaker Birla alleging that Rahul Gandhi was physically manhandled and urged him to take appropriate action.

"Members of the INDIA alliance were peacefully protesting and marching from the Ambedkar statue to Makar Dwar. But as we tried to enter the Parliament through Makar Dwar, the protesting MPs were physically stopped from entering," it read.

Cross complaints: Case registered against Rahul for 'injuring' 2 BJP MPs

SHEKHAR SINGH @ New Delhi

DELHI Police registered an FIR against Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi and other Congress MPs following a scuffle on Parliament premises on Thursday, hours after BJP and Opposition party members filed cross complaints alleging assault.

A police officer confirmed to this newspaper that the FIR was filed under sections 117 (voluntarily causing grievous hurt), 115 (voluntarily causing hurt), 125 (endangering life or personal safety of others), 131 (use of criminal force), 351 (criminal intimidation), and 3(5) (common intention) of BNS at Parliament Street Police Station.

According to the BJP, their MPs Pratap Rao Sarangi and Mukesh Rajput sustained injuries during the incident. Meanwhile, the Congress claimed that their party president Mallikarjun Kharge, 80, was pushed to the ground by BJP members, resulting in injuries.

Following the incident, a BJP delegation, including MPs Anurag Thakur, Bansuri Swaraj, and Hemang Joshi, submitted a formal complaint at Parliament Street police station. The complaint, filed by Vadodara MP Hemang Joshi, accused Rahul Gandhi of "attempted murder" against BJP MPs.

A Congress delegation, including women MPs and senior leaders like Pramod Tiwari, Digvijaya Singh, and Imran Pratapgarhi, had also filed a complaint at the same police station. The Congress accused BJP MPs of intentionally blocking their protest march and using force against Rahul Gandhi and Mallikarjun Kharge.

BJP MP writes to RS Chair, says LoP 'misbehaved' with her during House protest

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

BJP MP from Nagaland S Phangnon Konyak on Thursday alleged in the Rajya Sabha that Congress leader Rahul Gandhi came in her "close proximity" and shouted at her during a protest outside the Parliament's Makar Dwar which made her feel "extremely uncomfortable".

"My dignity and self-esteem have been deeply hurt by LoP Rahul Gandhi," she said in a communication to Rajya Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankar who said he would look into it, noting that she appeared "literally in tears" when she met him to submit her complaint.

She alleged, "He misbehaved with me in a loud voice and his physical proximity to me was so close that I being a lady member felt extremely uncomfortable. I stepped aside with heavy heart renouncing my democratic rights, but felt that no MP should behave this way."

Rahul Gandhi and Congress leaders denied her allegations.

Leader of the House and BJP president JP Nadda slammed the Congress leader's conduct as "an act of physical and mental harassment".

Nadda said, "The way the leader of the opposition pushed our sister Konyak, who is a member of the House, amounted to physical and mental harassment. It is a matter of privilege." He said the discussion held on the Constitution in Parliament had exposed the Congress completely on how it twisted and misused it in the last 75 years and therefore the party members have "lost their mind".

Minister Kiren Rijiju alleged that Rahul Gandhi had pushed her and charged physically while entering Parliament.

Shah vows dominance over J&K terrorism

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

UNION Home Minister Amit Shah on Thursday chaired a high-level meeting to review the security situation in Jammu and Kashmir. This was his first such review since the recent assembly elections that brought a National Conference-led government to power under Chief Minister Omar Abdullah.

According to officials, the meeting, which was attended by J&K Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha, senior officials from the Army, paramilitary forces, intelligence agencies, and the Ministry of Home Affairs, focused on the security roadmap for 2025.

They said Shah emphasised on the implementation of 'Area Domination Plan' and 'Zero Terror Plan' in mission mode. He directed all the security agencies operating in the Union Territory to continue working in a coordinated manner to eliminate terrorism.

The Ministry of Home Affairs said in a statement, "The home minister noted that due to the sustained and coordinated efforts of the Prime Minister Narendra Modi-led government, the ecosystem of terrorism in J&K has almost ended."

Lauding the unprecedented participation of people of the Union Territory in the recently held assembly and Lok Sabha elections, Shah said these showed that they have full faith in the democracy. He also appreciated the efforts of the security agencies for a major decline in terrorist incidents, infiltration and recruitment of youth in terror organisations.

Shah asserted that the Centre, with the joint efforts of all security forces, "is committed to establish complete dominance over terrorism in J&K".

Since the abrogation of Article 370 and the reorganisation of J&K in 2019 into two Union Territories – J&K and Ladakh — law and order has remained under the purview of the Central government.

Official data, however, indicates a decline in violence, with 142 terrorists killed in 2019 compared to around 45 so far this year. Civilian deaths also dropped significantly, from 50 in 2019 to 14 by early November this year.

Meanwhile, earlier in the day J&K CM Abdullah also met the Union Home Minister and apprised him about the prevailing situation in the state and the experience he gathered in the past three month following assuming power in the Union Territory.

After the meeting, while speaking to reporters outside the North Block Abdullah said, "The meeting with the Home Minister was regarding the situation in J&K and restoration of statehood, as there were talks over the issue and also there is hope that it will be restored."

Yuge Yugeen Bharat Museum in North, South blocks to have over 25K artefacts

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

YUGE Yugeen Bharat Museum (YYBM) to be set up in North and South blocks will have about 25,000 artefacts — depicting the history of 5,000 years of India's civilization — on display in eight thematic galleries. Besides the cultural objects from National Museum in Delhi, the new facility will showcase antique repositories from the museums of other states.

Senior officials privy to the development said that given the availability of large exhibition space in YYBM, it is proposed to put exhibits four-time more than the objects available for public viewing at National Museum.

"There are about 6,000 artefacts and relics displayed presently in National Museum. According to the plan being worked upon, there should be around 25,000 articles in YYBM," said an official. Though there is no clarity on the deadline for the project, the official added that it depends on handing over of the two administrative blocks for retrofitting and repurposing. Efforts are on to vacate North and South blocks by June.

Union culture minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat on Thursday said restoration of the twin buildings would begin only after the ministries functioning from the two blocks are shifted to new secretariat buildings. "In the last 100 years, need-based changes like partitions have been introduced in North and South blocks. They will be restored to original form. The mapping of the North block is completed and the process in the South Block is going on," Shekhawat said.

SP's Sambhal MP booked for power theft at residence

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow

THE troubles for Samajwadi Party's Sambhal MP Zia-ur-Rehman Barq seem to be deepening as a fresh FIR in connection with power theft lodged against him on Thursday. The MP was booked under Section 135 (theft of power or unauthorised use of electricity) of the Electricity Act, 2003.

"On checking the meter of the consumer received from the electrical testing laboratory, it is clear that electricity theft has been committed by bypassing the meter and using electricity illegally," stated the FIR lodged on a complaint by a power department official. The department inspected the MP's house in the morning amid heavy security.

According to sources, the officials checked the load of various electrical appliances, including air conditioners and fans, and found that the MP has a domestic power connection of 2 KW. However, he bypassed the meter for using appliances like ACs, fridge, etc.

According to sources, the department found a load of 16,480 watts in the MP's house. The findings were revealed after SDO Santosh Tripathi filed an FIR at the Nakhasa Anti-Power Theft police station.

Shrish Chandra, Additional SP Sambhal, the electricity department informed that during the checking at the residence, the MP's father threatened an official.

Sources said the power department found that the available connection was one-eighth of the load, following which the electricity board cut the connection of the residence of the MP.

Another FIR was lodged against the MP's father Mamluk-ur-Rehman Barq for allegedly threatening government officials. In the FIR, Tripathi alleged that Maulana Mamluk and his two bouncers threatened him and his team with dire consequences.

Assam STF nabs 8 Bangla terror outfit operatives

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Special Task Force (STF) of Assam Police arrested eight operatives of terror outfit, Ansarullah Bangla Team (ABT), during simultaneous operations carried out in Kerala, West Bengal and Assam on the intervening night of December 17 and 18.

One of them, Md Sad Radi alias Md Shab Sheikh, is a Bangladeshi national who was arrested from Kerala. Two others are from West Bengal and the remaining five are from Assam.

Led by Assam STF chief Partha Sarathi Mahanta, the "Operation Praghat" was carried out with the assistance of Kerala and West Bengal police.

The Assam police said the operation was launched based on inputs about anti-national activities being carried out by a group of individuals under the direction of Md Farhan Israk, a close aide of ABT chief Jasimuddin Rahmani. ABT is an affiliate of Al-Qaeda in the Indian Subcontinent.

The police said the Bangladeshi national was sent to India in November to create sleeper cells across the country. He visited Assam and West Bengal to meet ABT's sleeper cell members before moving to Kerala for the same purpose.

Apart from him, the others arrested were Minarul Sheikh, Md Abbas Ali (both from West Bengal), Nur Islam Mandal, Abdul Karim Mandal, Mojibar Rahman, Hamidul Islam and Enamul Hoque (all from Assam).

"The incriminating documents and mobile phones with technical evidence seized from the arrested accused indicate their continuous communication across the border with Bangladesh and Pakistan-based entities over the last couple of months," the Assam police said.

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE body of a 43-year-old man, who was among the two missing passengers after a Navy craft rammed into their ferry off the Mumbai coast, was found on Thursday.

The body of Hansraj Bhati was found near the ferry, police said. The death toll in the tragedy has now gone up to 14. Search operation continues to locate a seven-year-old boy who is missing a day after the tragedy, a police official said.

A naval helicopter and eight boats of the Navy and Coast Guard were deployed on Thursday to look for the missing passengers. "Of the 113 people on board both the vessels, 14 died and 98, including two injured, were rescued. There were six people on board the Navy craft, of which two survived," the official said.

Thirteen people, including Navy personnel and two contractual naval employees, were killed when the Navy craft dashed against the passenger ferry 'Neel Kamal', carrying more than 100 passengers from the Gateway of India to the Elephanta Island on Wednesday afternoon.

The Navy on Thursday instituted a Board of Inquiry to probe the collision of the naval boat with the passenger ferry. "A Board of Inquiry has been ordered into the accident to establish the facts of the case," the Navy said.

Mumbai police deputy commissioner Pravin Munde said, "An FIR has been filed against the driver of the Navy speed boat at Colaba police station and inquiry is on."

Despite the showdown, Chaturvedi managed to return to the stage later, placing the portrait and garlanding it. The whistleblower is reportedly leading a campaign to free Tansen's birthplace and meditation site in Gwalior from encroachments.

R-G Kar victim's parents in HC for fresh probe

SULAGNA SENGUPTA @ Kolkata

THE parents of the R G Kar Medical College and Hospital rape-murder victim moved Calcutta High Court on Thursday seeking a fresh investigation into the horrific crime.

The parents, through their counsel, stated they don't have any confidence in the CBI probe and prayed for a direction for a fresh investigation into the rape-murder of their daughter.

A single bench of Justice Tirthankar Ghosh asked the CBI to be made a party in the case and posted the matter for hearing on Monday.

The on-duty 31-year-old postgraduate trainee doctor's body was found in the seminar room of the RG Kar on August 9.

A local court on December 13 granted bail to RG Kar ex-principal Sandip Ghosh and then Tala police station's officer-in-charge Abhijit Mondal in the case after the CBI failed to file chargesheet against them within the stipulated 90-day period. While Ghosh was accused of tampering with evidence, the police officer was accused of delaying the filing of an FIR after the body was found.

'Ideology remains same': Jogi's wife writes to Cong, proposes merger of party

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

THE regional outfit Janta Congress Chhattisgarh-J (JCC-J), floated by the first chief minister late Ajit Jogi in June 2016, owing to the declining political footprint across the state, has approached the Congress seeking a merger with the latter.

JCC-J national president Dr Renu Jogi (wife of Ajit Jogi) has sent a proposal to state Congress president Deepak Baij expressing that the ideology of her party remains the same as that of the Congress and the core committee has unanimously taken a decision on merger. The proposal stated that all office-bearers of JCC-J are willing to join Congress unconditionally.

"We have received a proposal letter related to merging of JCC-J with Congress. There is a meeting of the Chhattisgarh PCC scheduled after December 25 and the discussions with senior party leaders will decide on it. The PCC has also received several applications by others seeking a return to the Congress party", said Baij.

JCC-J that contested the 2018 Assembly polls with much fanfare and enthusiasm after forging an alliance with the BSP, had then won five seats with the BSP securing two. The party also then got its symbol allotted by the Election Commission of India. But in the 2023 Assembly elections, the party could not win a single seat.

"The challenging situation for JCC-J is not improving. Renu Jogi and son Amit couldn't fill the vacuum left by the former CM. The party leadership failed to keep its cadres together. Many senior leaders have already deserted the party before 2023 polls," according to a political observer.

Grim reality belies development plank, Gujarat schools lack toilets

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

DESPITE Gujarat's government championing its development narrative, unsettling data presented in the Lok Sabha on Thursday revealed glaring shortcomings in the state's basic infrastructure. The Central government statistics indicated that 105 government schools in Gujarat still lack toilet facilities, while 12 remain without drinking water, raising serious concerns about the state's progress claims.

These figures starkly contrast with 2023 statistics, which stated that of the 34,699 government schools, 33,219 were equipped with boys' toilets, and 33,516 had toilets for girls. Alarmingly, this means 1,480 schools lacked toilets for boys, while 1,183 schools had no toilets for girls, underscoring persistent sanitation challenges.

The revelations from the Jal Shakti Ministry, in response to a query in the LS, deepened concerns. Of the 34,699 schools, 12 lack drinking water systems. While 34,687 schools have access to drinking water and 34,594 have toilet facilities, the gaps in 12 and 105 schools remain a challenge for the educational infrastructure.

The Ministry of Water Resources' 2023 reply in the LS painted a bleak picture of sanitation facilities. Out of 34,699 government schools, 1,480 lacked boys' toilets and 1,183 had no toilets for girls.

Adding to the concern, a disclosure from the government in 2023 revealed that out of 29,754 state-run schools, 29,713 were provided with tap water, leaving 41 schools without this essential facility. These gaps underline the need for a focused approach to infra development.

The Jal Shakti Ministry said the Department of School Education and Literacy under the Ministry of Education implemented Samagra Shiksha Scheme. This centrally sponsored programme aims to strengthen infra in government schools, including drinking water and sanitation facilities.

But the shortcomings reveal a pressing need for effective execution of these initiatives.

GAPS IN BASIC INFRA

TOILETS
Despite building 1,521 toilets in 2023 under Swachh Vidyalaya Initiative, 105 schools lacked this facility in 2024. In 2023, over 2,600 schools lacked adequate toilets for boys and girls

DRINKING WATER
While most schools are well-equipped, 12 remain without a drinking water system, and 41 lacked tap water as recently as 2023

EXECUTION
The Samagra Shiksha Scheme underscores the government's intention to address these gaps, but the persistent issues reflect inefficiencies in implementation

As per the four-yearly tiger census, Uttarakhand ranked third in number of tigers with a population of 560 in 2022

The last reported tiger death in 2024 occurred in September

There are a total of 53 tiger reserves across India

From 2012 to September 2024
132 tiger deaths were recorded in Uttarakhand.

DURING THIS PERIOD, MADHYA PRADESH RECORDED THE HIGHEST NUMBER OF TIGER DEATHS AT 365

UTTARAKHAND has witnessed a significant decrease in tiger mortality cases this year.

According to the National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA), only eight tiger deaths have been recorded in 2024 so far, marking a staggering 61.90% reduction compared to 21 deaths reported last year.

According to sources, there have been no reported cases of poaching this year, further highlighting the success of ongoing conservation efforts.

Speaking to this newspaper, Chief Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Ranjan Mishra pointed out, "According to the country's tiger census conducted every four years, Uttarakhand ranks third in the nation with a tiger population of 560 in 2022. However, the cases of tiger deaths in the state in 2023 have raised concerns among wildlife enthusiasts and conservationists".

Sources at forest department said, "A total of 21 tigers died from January to December, with incidents of poaching reported alongside natural deaths. In July and September, three tiger skins were seized from the Kumaon region, one of which measured an alarming 11 feet in length, indicating the presence of an organised poaching racket."

The sources said there has been an improvement in the situation this year. The last reported tiger death in 2024 occurred in September. The forest department and security agencies have tightened patrol efforts, leading to a decrease in poaching incidents.

"From 2012 to September 2024, 132 tiger deaths have been recorded," the sources revealed. During this period, the state ranked fourth in the country in terms of tiger deaths. Madhya Pradesh recorded the highest number of fatalities, with a staggering 365 deaths during the same timeframe.

Mishra said, "The Jim Corbett National Park ranks first in terms of tiger density. In 2010, tigers were on the brink of extinction. There are a total of 53 tiger reserves across the country, with Jim Corbett Tiger Reserve taking the top spot. The number of tigers in the park has been consistently increasing. It provides a safe environment for tigers due to its natural habitat, natural and constructed water holes, and abundant water supply."

Jim Corbett National Park spans an impressive 1,288 sqkm and is home to over 260 tigers. Following closely in second place is Karnataka's Bandipur Tiger Reserve, which boasts more than 150 tigers across an area of 868 sqkm.

MP's Take Home Ration scheme: CAG flags ₹428 cr irregularities from '18-'21

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

IRREGULARITIES worth around ₹428 crore have been detected by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India (CAG) in the Take Home Ration (THR) scheme in Madhya Pradesh between 2018-2021.

The THR is one of the components of the Supplementary Nutrition Programme, which forms part of the Centrally-sponsored Integrated Child Development Services. The scheme's main aim is to supplement nutritional requirements of children aged between six months and three years, pregnant and lactating mothers and out-of-school adolescent girls (OOSAGs) aged between 11 and 14 years.

During the period when the irregularities have been detected in the scheme, the state was ruled by the Kamal Nath-led Congress and the Shivraj Singh Chouhan-led BJP.

According to the report for the year ended March 31, 2021 tabled in the Vidhan Sabha, "Audit findings clearly indicate serious irregularities in the identification of beneficiaries, production, transportation, distribution and quality control of the THR... The audit, therefore, recommends the government to act appropriately against delinquent officials..."

According to the report, despite Central and state government instructions to complete the baseline survey for the beneficiary identification of OOSAGs for THR distribution by April 2018, the women and child development department could complete the baseline survey only in February 2021.

The delay in the completion of the survey led to irregularities in THR production, transportation and distribution.

While the school education department had estimated the number of OOSAGs at 0.43 lakh in 2018-19 to 2020-21, WCD officials estimated the number to be 5.51 lakh. The WCD directorate yet accepted a "fictitious" number of 5.51 lakh OOSAGs.

The audit revealed that six plants in Dhar, Mandla, Rewa, Sagar and Shivpuri districts supplied THR worth ₹4.80 crore, despite non-availability on the date of the issue of challan. Six THR manufacturing plants/firms claimed to have transported THR worth ₹5.46 crore in trucks. But the verification of the database revealed that trucks used were registered as motorcycles, cars, autos and tankers.

NUTRITION PROGRAMME

- THR Scheme is a key component of the Supplementary Nutrition Programme of the centrally sponsored ICDS
- Aims to supplement nutritional requirements of children aged between six months and 3 years, pregnant and lactating mothers, out of school girls aged between 11 and 14 years
- Irregularities range identification of beneficiaries to the production, transportation, distribution and quality control of the THR
- The audit has revealed irregularities to the tune of around ₹428 crore
- Number of out of school adolescent girls was inflated, which led to likely excess expenditure worth ₹110.78 crore

Putin says war boosted military, economy

Regrets not invading Ukraine earlier; denies ouster of Assad hurt his image; year-end conference lasts 4.5 hours

MOSCOW

PRESIDENT Vladimir Putin boasted that his military operation in Ukraine has strengthened Russia and denied that the ouster of key ally Bashar Assad in Syria had hurt Moscow's prestige, as he held his annual news conference and call-in show on Thursday.

He used the tightly choreographed event, which lasted for about 4 1/2 hours, to reinforce his authority and demonstrate a sweeping command of everything from consumer prices to military hardware.

He claimed that sending troops into Ukraine in 2022 has boosted Russia's military and economic power.

He also said that if he could go back in time, he "would have thought that such a decision should have been made earlier," and Russia should have "prepared for it in advance and more thoroughly."

"Russia has become much stronger over the past two or three years because it has become a truly sovereign country," he said.

"We are standing firm in terms of economy, we are strengthening our defense potential and our military capability now is the strongest in the world."

Putin, who has held power for nearly a quarter-century and began another six-year term earlier this year, said the military was "advancing toward achieving our goals" in what he calls the special military operation in Ukraine.

In response to a question about a new hypersonic ballistic missile that Russia used for the first time last month to strike Ukraine, Putin scoffed at claims by some Western experts that it could be intercepted by NATO's air defenses.

He mockingly challenged Ukraine's allies to a "high-tech duel," suggesting that Moscow could give advance notice of a strike on Kyiv with the Oreshnik missile and see if the West could protect the city.

"Let them select a target, possibly in Kyiv, put their air defence assets there and we shall strike it with the Oreshnik," he said with a dry smile. "Let's see what happens."

Russia is making steady, if slow, advances in Ukraine, but has also suffered embarrassing setbacks. On Tuesday, Lt Gen Igor Kirillov was killed by a bomb planted outside his apartment building in Moscow — a brazen assassination claimed by Ukraine that brought the conflict once again to the streets of the Russian capital.

Putin described Kirillov's killing as a "major blunder" of Russia's security agencies, noting they should learn from it and improve their efficiency.

Moscow's troops are also battling Ukrainian forces in the Russian region of Kursk, where they have launched an incursion. Asked when they would drive the Ukrainians out, Putin said "we will certainly kick them out" but wouldn't say how long it would take. AP

PUTIN SAYS

I haven't yet seen president Assad since his arrival in Moscow but I plan to, I will definitely speak with him

I don't know when I'm going to see him (Trump). He isn't saying anything about it. I haven't talked to him in more than four years. I am ready for it, of course. Any time

Inflation is a worrying signal

Jaishankar said it best when he quipped, BRICS isn't anti-Western. It's just not Western

Our special services are missing these hits. They missed these hits. It means we need to improve this work. We must not allow such very serious blunders to happen—on the killing of senior general in Moscow

DECADE OF ABUSE

Ex-husband gets 20 yrs in jail for letting 50 rape his spouse

AVIGNON

A court in France on Thursday sentenced the ex-husband of Gis'le Pelicot to a maximum 20 years of imprisonment for drugging and raping her and allowing other men to rape her while she was knocked out, in abuse that lasted a decade.

The sentence against Dominique Pelicot was declared after he was found guilty of all charges against him. At age 72, it could mean that he spends the rest of his life in prison.

The verdict was read by the lead judge of the court in Avignon, Roger Arata.

Arata read out verdicts one after the other against Pelicot and 50 other men, declaring 'you are therefore declared guilty of aggravated rape on the person of Gis'le Pelicot' as he worked his way through the first names on the list.

Gis'le Pelicot was seated on one side of the courtroom, facing the defendants as Arata announced one guilty verdict after another.

Gis'le Pelicot said that the ordeal was 'very difficult' and expressed support for other victims of sexual violence.

"We share the same fight," she said in her first words after the sentencing.

She said that she had her grandchildren in mind as she endured the more than three months of hearings, saying: "It's also for them that I led this fight."

The historic case has profoundly shaken France over the past several months.

Dominique Pelicot admitted that for years he knocked his then wife of 50 years out with drugs so that he and strangers he recruited online could abuse her while he filmed the assaults.

The appalling ordeal inflicted over nearly a decade on Gis'le Pelicot, now a 72-year-old grandmother, in what she thought was a loving marriage and her courage during the bruising and stunning trial have transformed the retired power company worker into a feminist hero of the nation.

Stretching over more than three months, the trial galvanised campaigners against sexual violence and spurred calls for tougher measures to stamp out rape culture.

Prosecutors asked that Dominique Pelicot get the maximum penalty and for sentences of 10 to 18 years for the others. They also requested a four-year prison term for another defendant who was tried for aggravated sexual assault. Of the 50 men, just one was acquitted but found guilty of assault. AP

Trump brings budget chaos back with help from Musk

WASHINGTON

PRESIDENT-ELECT Donald Trump delivered a likely death blow to bipartisan congressional budget negotiations on Wednesday, rejecting the measure as full of giveaways to Democrats as billionaire ally Elon Musk whipped up outrage toward the bill and cheered on Republican lawmakers who announced their opposition.

Trump's joint statement with Vice President-elect JD Vance, which stopped the bill in its tracks, punctuated a daylong torrent of social media posts by Musk attacking the budget legislation as full of excessive spending. "Kill the Bill!" Musk wrote on X as he dangled primary challenges against anyone who voted for the budget deal, a threat Trump later echoed in a post of his own.

In his statement with Vance, Trump criticised the bill and advocated for extending the debt ceiling with President Joe Biden in office. AP

US sanctions 4 Pakistan aerospace, defence firms

WASHINGTON

THE United States on Wednesday slapped sanctions on four Pakistani entities, including the state-owned flagship aerospace and defence agency – National Development Complex (NDC) – on charges of them contributing to Pakistan's ballistic missile programme.

In light of the continuing proliferation threat of Pakistan's long-range missile development, the United States is designating four entities for sanctions which targets proliferators of weapons of mass destruction and their means of delivery, the State Department said.

In addition to the NDC, the three other entities are Akhtar and Sons Private Limited, Affiliates International and Rockside Enterprise. All three are based in Karachi, while the NDC is in Islamabad.

The NDC has worked to acquire items in furtherance of Pakistan's long-range ballistic missile programme – including special vehicle chassis intended to be used as launch support equipment for ballistic missiles and missile-testing equipment. The United States assesses that the NDC is responsible for Pakistan's development of ballistic missiles, including the SHAHEEN-series ballistic missiles, the State Department said.

Akhtar and Sons Private Limited has worked for the NDC to supply a range of equipment to Pakistan's long-range ballistic missile programme. Affiliates International has facilitated procurement of missile-applicable items for the NDC and others in support of Pakistan's ballistic-missile programme.

Rockside Enterprise has worked for the NDC to supply a range of equipment to Pakistan's long-range ballistic missile programme, the State Department said.

State Department Spokesperson Matthew Miller said the NDC worked to supply equipment and missile-applicable items to Pakistan's ballistic missile programme. PTI

Islamabad calls State Dept's sanctions biased

Islamabad: Pakistan on Thursday termed as 'unfortunate and biased' the US decision to sanction its commercial entities for alleged involvement in ballistic missile programme. According to a statement from the foreign office, the sanction defies the objective of peace and security by aiming to accentuate military asymmetries and claimed that double standards and discriminatory practices undermine the credibility of non-proliferation regimes. Pakistan considers the sanctions as unfortunate and biased, the foreign office said

US urges SC to dismiss 26/11 convict's petition against extradition to India

WASHINGTON

THE US government urged the Supreme Court to dismiss a petition filed by Mumbai-attack convict Tahawwur Rana, a Canadian national of Pakistani origin, to avoid his extradition to India.

India is seeking the extradition of Rana as he is wanted in the 2008 Mumbai terror attack case. Having lost the legal battle against his extraditions in lower courts and several federal courts, including the US Court of Appeals for the North Circuit in San Francisco, Rana on Nov 13 filed a "petition for a writ of certiorari" before the US Supreme Court. This is Rana's last legal chance to avoid extradition to India. Rana, currently lodged in a jail in Los Angeles, faces charges for his role in the Mumbai attacks and is known to be associated with Pakistani-American terrorist David Coleman Headley, one of the main conspirators of the 26/11 Mumbai attacks. "The petition for a writ of certiorari should be denied," US Solicitor General Elizabeth B Prelogar said in its filing before the Supreme Court. Rana is not entitled to relief from extradition to India, she argued in a 20-page submission. In his "petition for a writ of certiorari to review the judgment of the US Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit", Rana argued he was tried and acquitted in the federal court in the Northern District of Illinois on charges relating to the 2008 terrorist attack on Mumbai. PTI

INR hits all-time low, breaches 85 mark against USD

Indian currency slips 13 paise on Thursday as US Fed scales back rate cut in 2025

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

THE rupee plunged below the sensitive 85 mark for the first time ever and closed 13 paise down at 85.07, after hitting a low of 85.085 intra-day on Thursday as the US Federal Reserve scaled back its rate cut projections for 2025, battering all Asian currencies and leading to a rally in the greenback.

During the opening trade, rupee hit a low of 85.085 against dollar before closing at 85.07. On Wednesday, the unit had closed at 84.97 to the dollar. This day last year, rupee was at 83.02 and on October 10 it was trading above the 84-mark. Traders said the Reserve Bank has sold dollars to stem the slide helping the rupee fare better than most of its Asian peers, which declined by as much as 1.2%. As against this, the rupee lost just 13 paise.

While cutting 25 bps off the Federal fund rates to 4.25-4.50% on Wednesday, the world's most powerful central bank said given the sticky inflation and a strong economy along with hiring, they will not cut the rates as much as earlier hinted but will have just two cuts or 50 bps in two instalments. Earlier chairman Jerome Powell had hinted at four rate cuts of 25 bps each in 2025. Since September the Fed had cut 100 bps - 50 bps in September and 25 bps each in November and Wednesday (Dec 18).

The market took this as a hawkish shift in its dot plot strategy and US markets slumped over 3% on Wednesday, which extended to Asian and European markets as well as Dalal Street with BSE and NSE indices sliding more than 1% each.

The dollar index fell below the 108 handle in Asia trading after rising to an over two-year high earlier in the day. US bond yields extended gains, with the 10-year treasury yield touching a peak of 4.54%, the highest since May, as per American media reports. Central banks across emerging markets scrambled to defend their struggling currencies as Korean won dropped to its weakest level in 15 years, while the Indonesian rupiah hit a four-month low.

HSFC Securities told TNIE that they expect the rupee to continue to remain under pressure and trade in a range and sees the unit plunging by 50 paise more by end March.

Mkt falls as Fed indicates lower rate cut in 2025

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

DOMESTIC equity market declined sharply on Thursday following a cautious Federal Reserve commentary and weak global cues. Following for the fourth straight session, the BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty50 have given up key support levels of 80,000 and 24,000, respectively.

At Thursday's close, the Sensex was down 964.15 points or 1.20% at 79,218.05 and the Nifty fell 247.15 points or 1.02% to settle at 23,951.70. The 4-day selling has wiped out investors' wealth by more than ₹10 lakh crore.

The selling intensified on Thursday after the US Federal Reserve gave a hawkish commentary on future rate cute. While the Fed reduced interest rates by 0.25% to 4.5% late Wednesday, it gave strong indications that there would be only two rate cuts next year, instead of the anticipated 75-100 basis points. This, according to experts, reflects inflationary pressures, as inflation remains above the Fed's 2% target.

The immediate impact of the FOMC meeting outcome was seen US equity and bond market. Rising US bond yields have pushed global currencies, including the rupee to new lows on Thursday. The local currency slipped past 85 to the US dollar for the first time on Thursday. Experts believe that such as steep fall may lead to foreign fund outflows from domestic equities in the short term.

"While the decision was widely expected, the forward guidance surprised markets, as Fed Chair Jerome Powell indicated expectations for two additional cuts in 2025. Powell emphasized the Fed's commitment to economic stability but cautioned that inflation may take one to two years to return to the 2% target," said Ravi Singh, SVP-Retail Research, Religare Broking. Singh added that the rate cut may cause short-term liquidity concerns, but its long-term impact is expected to be limited, reflecting the Fed's careful balancing act in navigating economic uncertainties.

"The realisation that rate cuts are not coming soon spiked the US 10-year bond yields higher above 4.5%. Dow Jones too continued with its losing streak for 10th day and S&P 500 fell sharply by 3% in a day. If the bond yields continue to move higher then US markets could witness further cuts going in to the new year. Our markets won't have much of an option but will follow suit," said Apurva Sheth, Head of Market Perspectives and Research.

In the Nifty50 pack, Bajaj Finance, Bajaj Finserv, Asian Paints, JSW Steel, and Grasim were the top laggards, falling by up to 2.33 per cent. The broader markets also faced selling pressure with Nifty Midcap100 and Nifty Smallcap100 indices ending lower by 0.28% and 0.51%, respectively.

Govt proposes new legislation to curb proliferation of illegal lending apps

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THE government is planning a comprehensive legislature to curb the proliferation of illegal lending apps. The department of financial services, Ministry of Finance, has prepared a draft bill, which proposes severe punishment with jail term of up to 10 years and monetary fines of up to ₹1 crore for those found involved in promoting unregulated lending activities.

The Bill seeks to ban all illegal lending activities whether carried out by digital means or otherwise. It has also proposed to designate an authority which would maintain a database of all authorised lenders operating in the country. The database will have a facility for the public to search any authorized lender in the country. If a regulated entity fails to provide information sought by the authority, they would be fined by up to ₹5 lakh.

Every regulated lender will have to inform the authority about the activities being undertaken by them. This information has to be shared by the authority with law enforcement authorities like the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) and state police.

The bill provides for not only severe punitive measures against those found involved in illegal lending, but also raids without warrant against the alleged culprit.

Mayank Arora, director-regulatory, Nangia Andersen India, says the intent of the proposed legislation is strong, as it provides for criminalisation of offences and punishments for persons involved as accomplice, apart from persons directly involved.

Two years ago, the RBI notified the Digital Lending Guidelines to curb unfair practices by regulated entities.

"One of the main issues in the digital lending domain is that the consumers are not aware of the real lenders as there is no physical interaction in the lending transaction. Unregulated entities used this to camouflage as authorised lenders, affecting the entire ecosystem," added Arora.

Mushrooming illegal loan apps have become a menace in the country. These loan apps typically offer small loans at exorbitant high interest rates, and use extortionist ways to recover money from borrowers, forcing many borrowers to even take their own lives. Many of these apps operate from overseas countries with the help of little-known local finance companies.

Bharti Airtel prepays ₹3,626 crore spectrum purchase dues to govt

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

TELECOM service provider Bharti Airtel has made a prepayment of ₹3,626 crore to the government for the spectrum it purchased in 2016.

This payment is part of Airtel's efforts to clear its spectrum dues with high interest costs. With this payment, Airtel has now prepaid all its spectrum liabilities with interest costs higher than 8.65%. This year, the company has prepaid a total of ₹28,320 crore of spectrum liabilities.

"Prepaid ₹3,626 crore to the Department of Telecom (Government of India), clearing all its liabilities for spectrum it had acquired in 2016," said the telco in an exchange filing.

Airtel, India's second-largest telecom service provider, said this is the second prepayment the company has made in the current financial year. In June 2024, the company prepaid all its deferred liabilities for spectrum acquired in the 2012 and 2015 auctions, amounting to ₹7,904 crore. Airtel acquired spectrum worth ₹8.67 crore in 2012 and ₹29,129 crore in the 2015 auction.

Earlier this year, in January 2024, the company prepaid ₹8,325 crore to the telecom department to clear part of its deferred liabilities for the spectrum it acquired in the 2015 auction.

Airtel has consistently worked on prepaying its spectrum-related dues over the past few years. In July 2023, the company prepaid ₹8,024 crore to the DoT, and in March 2022, it cleared ₹8,815 crore for airwaves bought in the 2015 auction. This was followed by a significant prepayment of ₹15,519 crore in December 2021, which cleared all dues related to spectrum purchases in 2014.

IT sector to drive 15% growth in hiring in 2025, followed by retail

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

WITH the expansion of Global Capability Centers (GCCs) and multi-cloud adoption, the IT sector will drive 15% growth in hiring in 2025, as per the latest data from jobs platform foundit. It is followed by retail with 12% growth, telecommunications 11% and Banking and Financial Services (BFSI) with 10% growth.

foundit said the telecom sector's 11% forecasted growth is driven by advancements in AI, 5G, and IoT, with demand for skills in edge computing, SDN (software-defined networking), NFV (network function virtualisation) and cybersecurity. Overall, the talent platform predicts a 9% hiring growth in the country in 2025.

Anupama Bhimrajka, Vice President - Marketing, foundit, said, "As we enter 2025, India's job market looks set to broaden its horizons, with a projected 9% growth in hiring. Companies are not only looking for seasoned professionals but also broadening their search beyond established hubs."

"We believe this approach will create a healthier, more diverse environment, allowing businesses to access new talent pools and build a workforce aligned with future needs," she added.The report says technology advancements will drive demand for specialised talent, creating opportunities across industries. Industries like manufacturing, healthcare, and telecom will adopt edge computing to power real-time IoT applications.

Engineers and analysts skilled in managing connected devices and infrastructure will play a critical role. It also points out that with retail media expected to grow into a $100 billion market, companies will hire digital marketers, programmatic ad managers, and strategists to tap into advertising opportunities on e-commerce platforms.

Bengaluru to lead city-wise growth with a 10% job growth, followed by Coimbatore at 9%.

The report added that the job market showed robust growth in 2024 despite seasonal disparities.

Kia sees 20% sales growth vs industry's 5-10%

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

KOREAN carmaker Kia aims to achieve a 20% growth in sales volume in India next year, targeting sales of nearly 3 lakh passenger vehicles (PVs).

The company expects to conclude the calendar year 2024 with sales of nearly 2.5 lakh units. According to Hardeep Singh Brar, vice-President & head of marketing & sales at Kia India, the projected growth will largely be driven by its newly launched compact SUV, the Syros. Additionally, Kia is reportedly planning to introduce a mass-market electric vehicle (EV) in 2025.

Brar anticipates overall industry growth in 2025 despite cautious projections by other manufacturers and industry experts. "PV demand in 2024 was impacted by a temporary pause in government expenditure due to the general elections in May-June and layoffs in the IT sector. With layoffs behind us and government spending expected to rebound, the industry could grow at a healthy pace of 5-10% in 2025," he said.

Kia expects to outpace industry growth, given its strong presence in the compact and mid-SUV segments, as well as multipurpose vehicles (MPVs). Unlike sedans and hatchbacks, these segments have remained resilient. Kia currently holds a 15% market share across these segments and expects the Syros to boost its share to 20% within a year. However, Kia expressed concerns over the potential increase in GST on used EVs from 12% to 18%, emphasizing that such a move could hinder the Indian automotive industry's electrification journey. Currently, new EVs are taxed at 5% GST.

The company also revealed that its R&D centre is studying CNG and hybrid technologies, which are gaining popularity in India. Despite this, Kia has no immediate plans to launch CNG-powered vehicles or hybrids. On Thursday, Kia unveiled the all-new Syros SUV. Bookings for the sub-four-metre SUV will begin in January, with deliveries starting in February 2025. The Syros' pricing is expected to be announced at the Bharat Mobility Show next month. Built on the K1 platform, which also underpins Kia's Sonet, the Syros will feature a 1.0-litre turbo-petrol engine with a six-speed manual or seven-speed DCT, as well as a 1.5-litre diesel engine paired with either a six-speed manual or a six-speed automatic transmission.

Start-up funding up 6% YoY at $11.3 bn in 2024

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

IN 2024, the start-up ecosystem saw a marginal 6% increase in funding at $11.3 billion compared to $10.7 billion in 2023. However, this is a 56% decline compared to 2022 as start-ups raised record $25.4 billion funding in that year.

SaaS-based market intelligence platform Tracxn on Thursday released its India Tech Annual Report 2024. According to the report, in the second half of 2024, start-ups received $5.32 billion across 540 funding rounds, a growth of 8% from H2 2023 where $4.92 billion was raised across 890 rounds.

The report also indicates that in the last quarter of 2024, start-ups raised only $1.8 billion across 219 rounds, and this is the lowest in the last three years. When compared to the same period last year, this is a sharp 47.5% drop from $3.5 billion. This indicates a challenging macroeconomic environment and cautious investor sentiment. This year saw six start-ups entering the unicorn club compared to just two in 2023. In 2022, the country saw the emergence of 24 unicorns.

Neha Singh, co-founder of Tracxn, said, "While funding patterns have evolved towards fewer, larger rounds, the emergence of six unicorns, significant IPO activity, and sectoral growth in gig economy, retail and enterprise applications demonstrate the ecosystem's ability to adapt and innovate amidst global challenges."

Quick commerce sector secures $1.37 bn funding

In 2024 YTD (year-to-date), the quick commerce space has seen a significant jump in terms of funding as the sector raised $1.37 billion in equity funding from 7 rounds, driven largely by Zepto, which secured $1.355 billion across three $300 million rounds. The edtech sector raised $620 million from 72 equity funding rounds in YTD 2024, led by Physics Wallah's $210 million funding round.

As per the report, the healthtech sector witnessed robust growth, with over 7,000 active companies collectively raising $1 billion, a 133% increase from $438.2 million in 2023. In 2024, India Tech saw 37 IPOs, a 76.19% rise over 21 IPOs in 2023 and 94.74% higher than 19 IPOs in 2022. The year saw 20 $100 million+ rounds as against 18 such rounds in 2023 and 53 rounds in 2022. Among cities, Bengaluru tops with 30.28% of all funding, followed by Mumbai at 27.07%.

F1: New Zealander Lawson replaces Perez at Red Bull

Liam Lawson will partner world champion Max Verstappen at Red Bull in 2025, the F1 team said. Lawson, a New Zealander, replaces Sergio Perez, who was dropped on Wednesday after months of poor results. The 22-year-old Lawson will switch from Racing Bulls, Red Bull's sister team, after racing as a replacement driver in 2023 and this year.

Dubai may host India matches in 2025 Champions Trophy

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

EXPECTEDLY, the International Cricket Council on Thursday announced that India will play their 2025 Champions Trophy matches at a neutral venue. Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) was given the hosting rights of the tournament in 2021 but its Indian counterpart, BCCI, refused to travel to the country citing security concerns. According to the ICC, a similar arrangement will be adopted for all the ICC meets till 2027. A source in the know of things told this daily that India are set to play their CT matches in Dubai. "We have been verbally intimated by the ICC. Even as we are awaiting an official confirmation in this regard, Dubai is set to host India matches including knockouts if the Men in Blue make it to that stage," added the source.

Earlier in the day, the ICC ended the deadlock and confirmed through a statement that the PCB proposed the neutral venue concept. "The ICC Board has today (Thursday) approved that matches between India and Pakistan played at ICC events during the current rights cycle from 2024 to 2027 (which are to be hosted in India or Pakistan) will be played at a neutral venue proposed by the tournament host. This will apply to the ICC Men's Champions Trophy 2025 (Pakistan), ICC Women's Cricket World Cup 2025 (India) and the ICC Men's T20 World Cup 2026 (India and Sri Lanka)," the world governing body said in the statement.

The Champions Trophy is slated in February-March next year. The ICC said the match schedule will be announced soon. "In addition, the PCB has been awarded hosting rights of the ICC Women's T20 World Cup in 2028, where neutral venue arrangements will also apply. Cricket Australia has also been awarded hosting rights for one of the senior ICC women's events during the period 2029 to 2031," added the ICC.

The situation may get complicated if teams from India and Pakistan reach the knock-out stages in all these events. If that happens, then fans from the neighbouring countries would be devoid of watching their favourite players in action in their respective countries. It can also complicate issues for the players and support staff from both teams as they would be forced to travel to the chosen neutral venues for their matches more than once.

Notably, India has not travelled to Pakistan since the 2008 Mumbai terror attack. Pakistan had played a bilateral series in India 2012 but since then the two teams have not engaged in any bilateral series. They, however, played each in the ICC events with Pakistan touring India for the 2023 ODI World Cup. The two boards even adopted a hybrid model for the 2023 Asia Cup which preceded the ODI World Cup. India played their matches including the final in Sri Lanka.

This time, PCB chief Mohsin Naqvi, however, insisted on a formula on equal terms. "At the moment, we are talking to settle it once for all. I promise, whatever will happen will happen on equal terms. Whatever it is, it would be for the long term not only for the Champions Trophy. Things will be decided for the upcoming tournaments as well," Naqvi had earlier this month. Meanwhile, the announcement on Thursday became the first major decision taken by the ICC after former BCCI secretary Jay Shah took over as the chair of the world body. Pakistan won the last edition defeating India in the final. It was played in the UK in 2017. Top-eight teams from the 2023 ODI WC qualified for the Champions Trophy with Sri Lanka missing out as they finished ninth, only ahead of the Netherlands. For the 2025 CT, eight teams will be divided into two groups with the top two sides from each group advancing to the semifinals.

Post offie's retirement, focus is on senior players like Rohit, Kohli and India's transition phase

AFTER ASHWIN, WHO? THE LAST OF OGs IN FINAL STRETCH

ROHIT SHARMA had just realised what he had done. "Aap mere ko marwaoge yaar (You all are going to get me killed)," laughed Sharma, who was visibly drained and emotional, sitting at the press conference hall at the Gabba on Wednesday evening.

Sharma had been there for a little over 15 minutes by now. He sat next to R Ashwin, the former India cricketer, and watched his long-time teammate and friend call it a day before taking questions. Much like those who had been at the other end of the microphone, Sharma too seemed to be processing Ashwin's retirement even as he started to answer questions posed by the media. There were visible signs of emotion as well. While talking about not having Ashwin around, along with Ajinkya Rahane and Cheteshwar Pujara, Sharma got lost in the moment briefly. The way he went about answering about the India cricketers that it could well have been misconstrued as the two had played their last matches. "When you've played so much together and shared so many memories, and you see one by one these guys are not in the team you do feel their presence somewhere. But what can you do?," he said before realising where it was going. He paused, clarified that Rahane and Pujara hadn't retired.

"You mentioned all three names, that's why I am clarifying," Sharma said with a smile, covering his face in embarrassment. He would shake his head before looking up and saying that he meant they aren't here now but would come back in future. Sharma then looked slightly at the media manager on his left, murmured "Jesus, got me killed man," in disbelief, leading to another laughter in what had been an intense press conference.

Sharma might have said that the door is still open, but clearly the Indian team and the selectors are looking towards the next generation. It had been the case for a while, and something Ashwin alluded to while making his statement. "We are the last bunch of OGs," Ashwin said referring to himself, Sharma, Virat Kohli and Jadeja who are here in Australia. The three players have been playing for more than a decade.

In fact, Ashwin, Sharma, Rahane and Kohli toured Down Under as a part of the Test squad for the first time in 2011-12. Ashwin and Kohli played while the other two remained uncapped through the 0-4 drubbing at the hands of the merciless Australians. The ongoing tour has been compared to that one and it has its reason too.

That clean sweep Down Under led to the previous generation players deciding to hang their boots. It ushered in change too. It was the series that saw the last of Rahul Dravid and VVS Laxman as India cricketers. It was the tour where Kohli announced his arrival as a batting superstar. It was the series where Ashwin became India's primary off-spinner, with Harbhajan Singh getting dropped. And it was the tour where the likes of Sharma and Rahane warming the bench added immense pressure on Dravid and Laxman to perform. The immediate series after the Australia tour — home Tests against New Zealand — saw Pujara come in as new No 3 while India tried out different players at No 6 before Sharma and Rahane made their debuts in the year after. Ashwin's stature grew in the couple of years that followed. Jadeja joined him in 2013 and the rest, as they say, is stitching together history.

> When you've played so much together and shared so many memories, and you see one by one these guys are not in the team you do feel their presence somewhere. But what can you do?
> Rohit Sharma, on old teammates

Thirteen years since that nightmarish tour to Australia, India are finding themselves in a similar position. Ashwin, despite being the player of the series against Bangladesh, had Washington Sundar coming into the playing XI after the loss in the first Test to New Zealand. Since then, Washington has seemingly moved ahead in the pecking order, and started in the first Test against Australia. It was during this Perth match that Ashwin had informed Sharma about considering retirement. Sharma convinced the veteran to play in Adelaide but the latter decided to call it a day in Brisbane. The India captain explained that Ashwin understood the needs of the team and felt that if he was not needed, it might be the right time to say goodbye.

While Ashwin has been the only one to announce, others are also in the November of their careers. Sharma, at 37, has been struggling for form. With results not going India's way in the last four Tests he captained, pressure is mounting on him to deliver with the bat and as skipper. He is still the ODI captain and there is a Champions Trophy to play for. Then there is of course, Kohli, whose prowess with the bat has been waning, especially when he walks in to bat early in Test cricket. Jadeja, the youngest of the three, showed why he is valued with the bat, but he will have to step up with the ball.

Moreover, as a captain Sharma has to not just look to revive his form and batting, but also plan the transition. Sharma said that the discussions keep happening and it is normal. "As a captain, yes, you cannot be thinking about you but also the team. There are coaches, you talk to them about the team, the messaging and how to take it forward (all the time)," Sharma said. When directly asked if there are any more surprise retirements in this tour, Sharma said, "at the moment, there's nothing more."

There might not be any more announcements till the end of this tour. However, by the time they land in England next June, this team could look very different from what it is now. It all could depend on how the remaining two matches go and whether India make it to the World Test Championship final. One thing seems to be clear. 'The last of OGs' are nearing their end and Indian cricket should brace themselves for it.

NCC, the heartbeat of Australia cricket

The centre boasts of Sports Science and Medicine unit, Information & Resource Centre and Coaching, among many other critical facilities | EXPRESS

GOMESH S @ Brisbane

IT was about 12 noon on a breezy Thursday in Brisbane. Less than 24 hours ago the India and Australia men's teams had played out a draw. As both the teams were getting set to leave for Melbourne, about seven-and-a-half kilometres north of the historic stadium (the Gabba), Spencer Johnson, the Australian pacer, was warming up at the Allan Border Field. Formerly known as Neumann Oval, the Queensland Cricket took possession of the land in 1995 and was renamed after the Australian cricketing legend Allan Border. While the venue has been the home and headquarters for Queensland Cricket, it also houses what is perhaps the key facility in Australian cricket — National Cricket Centre.

The state-of-the-art cricketing centre has the ultimate responsibility of improving the quality of Australian cricketers. The centre is more than just a player development unit. It houses the Sports Science and Medicine unit, Information and Resource Centre and Coaching, Umpiring, Administration and Curator development, the NCC is where QC and Australia players visit for training, rehab and every small thing connected with upgrading and improving the sport. It boasts an indoor pool, nets and a swanky modern gym. If one takes a stroll in front of the main building towards the Allan Border Field through the Bill Brown Gate onto the Greg Chappell road, one can see the Ian Healy room, Andy Bichell gym followed by Stuart Law and Matthew Hayden Stands. Everywhere one looks at, one can see some Queensland cricketing legend's name above the doors and hallways.

As you walk along the boundary ropes, there is the Ray Lindwall Oval — another centre-wicket ground that has pitches with slow and low bounce. On one side of the Oval are the nets that have pacey pitches similar to Australia. The curators and groundsmen have also recreated subcontinental and English wickets. That could be the reason for Australia teams (men and women) visiting this centre before embarking on a tour.

Much like the National Cricket Academy in India — which was recently shifted to a new state-of-the-art Centre of Excellence in the outskirts of Bengaluru — Cricket Australia have had their academy in Adelaide since 1987. It was shifted to the Allan Border Field as the Centre of Excellence in 2004. The primary reason being the weather in the Sunshine state where cricket can be pursued with intent throughout the year.

The existing facility was announced after the Argus review, which was launched after Australia lost to England at home in the 2010-11 Ashes. Soon after, Cricket Australia launched the NCC in 2013, which underwent changes and redevelopment in the last three years. Now the venue can host about 6500 spectators. They are the home ground for the Queensland Bulls and Fire and also the Heat team in the Women's Big Bash League. Last week, Josh Hazlewood, who was recovering from a side strain, was whisked away to the NCC where he trained with the longer run up in the lead-up to the third Test.

Day of records for Richa & India as hosts win series 2-1

AGENCIES @ Navi Mumbai

RICHA Ghosh (54) equalled the world record for the fastest fifty in women's T20Is (18 balls) after Smriti Mandhana's (77) fireworks as India registered 217 for 4 in the series-deciding third and final match against the West Indies here on Thursday. It was also India's highest-ever total in the shortest format, going past the 201/5 against the UAE in the Asia Cup earlier this year.

The 21-year-old Ghosh reached 54 off just 21 balls (3x4, 5x6), alongside equalling the record for the fastest fifty being jointly held by New Zealand's Sophie Devine and Australia's Phoebe Litchfield.

Ghosh's blitz came after Mandhana became the leading run-scorer in this format this year, reaching 763 runs in 23 T20Is. She moved ahead of Sri Lanka captain Chamari Athapaththu in the run-scorer's list.

In reply, West Indies could manage only 157/9 with the hosts winning the three-match series 2-1. Brief scores: India 217/4 in 20 ovs (Mandhana 77, Richa 54, Rodrigues 39, Bist 31) bt West Indies 157/9 in 20 ovs Chinelle Henry 43; Radha Yadav 4/29).

MOMENT TO REMEMBER

Ashwin gets hero's welcome at home from family and friends

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

RAVICHANDRAN Ashwin, who took the cricketing world by surprise with his sudden retirement from international cricket, arrived in Chennai early morning on Thursday.

Having quietly made his way to his house at West Mambalam after a long flight, the ace off-spinner was in for a surprise. Unbeknownst to him, Ashwin's family and friends handed him a surprise of their own, a grand reception. The entrance to his house was decked with flowers and a band was on site to offer him a hero's welcome. His family members, coaches welcomed him with sweets and garlands.

It was understandably an emotional moment for Ashwin's family. Patting Ashwin's back, his father, Ravichandran, could be seen planting a kiss on his son's cheek. His mother was also filled with emotions and had tears of joy. His wife and children, meanwhile, were visibly thrilled to have him back. He was given a traditional 'aarti' and 'tilak' before entering the house.

Ashwin was visibly touched by the shower of love that he was feeling at that moment. It reminded him about the reception he got in 2011 after India won the World Cup. "I never thought so many people will come here. I just wanted a quiet entry, and was looking forward to relax at home. But you have made my day. I have played Test cricket for so many years, but the last time (I saw something) like this was after the 2011 World Cup," he told reporters.

FATHER QUESTIONS RETIREMENT

Ashwin's father Ravichandran claimed that "humiliation" could have been a reason for his son's decision to call it quits but the veteran off-spinner made light of the "dad comment", blaming it on lack of media training. Ravichandran, while speaking with a TV channel, said the family was expecting Ashwin's retirement for some time because "humiliation was going on", though he didn't reveal the exact nature of it. "The sudden change 'retirement' gave us a shock. We were expecting it because humiliation was going on. How long he can tolerate all those things? Probably, he would have decided on his own," he said. "It's his wish and desire, I cannot interfere in that. The way he gave his retirement, one part I was very happy, another part not happy because he should have continued," he added. agencies

Ashwin caught many off guard with his decision on Wednesday but said he had deliberated about hanging up his boots for a while. He eventually made the big decision to retire on Day 4 of the third Test and announced the same on the fifth day. "To be honest, I don't know, It's emotional for a lot of people. It will be emotional, maybe it will sink (thought of retirement) in. But for me, it's a great sense of relief and satisfaction...It had been running in my head for a while but it was very instinctive. I felt it on Day 4 and called on Day 5," Ashwin said, while trying to reason his decision.

Ashwin isn't looking too far ahead at the moment. For now, he just wants to take the back seat and relax.

"To be honest, we all go through a lot in our career, not only for cricketers but in general. Generally, when I go to sleep I remember a lot of things like taking wickets, making runs, but those memories are not there in the last two years. So, that was a clear indication that we need to take a different route now," Ashwin said.

"I have not set any new goals, as I just want to relax now. Actually, it's difficult for me to stay inactive, but I want to try that now," he added.

Ashwin will be seen playing for clubs in the TNCA league and the IPL. "I think that part for me is still burning bright. I am going to play for CSK and don't be surprised if I aspire to play for as long as I can. I don't think Ashwin the cricketer is done, I think only Ashwin the Indian cricketer called time. That's it," he signed off.

'Chip designing skills, ecosystem give India edge in semiconductor manufacturing'

Director of IBM Research India and CTO of IBM India and South Asia, Dr Amith Singhee, in an interaction with Dipak Mondal, explains breakthroughs in quantum computing and Generative AI. Excerpts:

INTERVIEW
DR AMITH SINGHEE

● India has set an ambitious target of becoming a semiconductor manufacturing hub. What are the main challenges India faces in achieving this target?

India, like any other country, faces challenges in this area—primarily because there hasn't been a semiconductor manufacturing setup here historically. Existing providers in this space are well-established, and their supply chains are firmly entrenched. For new entrants, breaking into the market in a significant way is fundamentally challenging. However, with the momentum created by the government through initiatives like the India Semiconductor Mission, funding support, and enablement measures, there are promising projects underway. Over the next few years, these initiatives are expected to yield positive outcomes at both the manufacturing and design levels.

● Is India doing anything different from other countries to create a semiconductor hub?

India has certain unique strengths that we are leveraging, particularly in chip design. While this capability might not be entirely unique, very few places in the world have the kind of depth and expertise in chip design that India possesses.

● Could you explain quantum computing in layman's terms and why it's so important nowadays?

Classical computing relies on digital logic and algorithms to solve problems, whether they involve processing data or simulating complex systems like nuclear plants, climate models, or protein folding. However, classical computers face limitations when addressing certain extremely complex problems.

Take, for example, surface chemistry on a battery anode or a catalyst. Classical computing requires approximating quantum mechanical interactions using equations, which limits accuracy. Quantum computing, on the other hand, approaches problems differently. It doesn't break problems down into bits and digits but instead emulates the actual physics involved in a clever way. This opens up opportunities for businesses to operate more efficiently, reduce costs, and address major challenges related to climate, energy, and food.

● What is IBM doing to drive breakthroughs in quantum computing?

IBM has been heavily invested in quantum computing for decades, even before it became widely recognised. In 2016, IBM became the first company to make a quantum computer available on the cloud. Over the past eight years, we've provided access to quantum computers for the broader public worldwide.

We focus on developing scalable hardware and chips that can be used in production. The goal is not just to showcase achievements but to make quantum computing accessible and practical for real-world applications. Additionally, some of our services are available for free to a certain extent. We collaborate extensively with institutions globally through initiatives like the IBM Quantum Network, which includes members from industry, academia, and startups working on algorithmic research.

● At the enterprise level, is quantum computing already being used in India?

In India, some system integrators with global clients are experimenting with quantum computing. However, quantum computing hasn't yet reached a level where it can be deployed for production applications. It's still in the research phase, with enterprises exploring how to model their problems using quantum computing concepts. It may take a few more years for the technology to mature for widespread production use.

● What is the current status of Generative AI in India, and what are the next big use cases or advancements we can expect?

Until last year, much of the discussion around Generative AI focused on Proof of Concept (PoC). However, we're now seeing real production applications in areas like marketing, customer care, software development, and back-end processes.

India also has some unique opportunities in Generative AI, particularly with Indian languages. Given India's linguistic diversity, businesses, government agencies, and public sector organisations are keen to leverage AI to overcome language barriers and enhance communication across the country.

'94% of Indian desk workers feel the urgency to master AI'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

INDIAN workers want to skill up on Artificial Intelligence (AI) as 94% feel an urgency to become AI expert. However, 40% of Indian workers have spent less than five hours learning how to use AI, and 30% of global workers say they have had no AI training at all, including no self-directed learning or experimentation, according to Slack's new Workforce Index.

The report states that 61% of Indian desk workers are using AI in their jobs and 80% are excited about the prospect of AI replacing some tasks. While Indian workers are leading the way in AI adoption globally, the research points to some uncertainty and discomfort around AI usage. As much as 21% of Indian workers report feeling uncomfortable admitting AI use to their managers for fear they might be seen as incompetent, lazy, or cheating.

Rahul Sharma, vice president — sales, Salesforce India, said, "India's workforce is leading the way in AI adoption, with 61% of desk workers already integrating AI into their roles. This enthusiasm highlights the transformative potential of AI and its alignment with leadership priorities for innovation and upskilling. However, to fully harness AI's benefits, there remains uncertainty that agents can address. By introducing AI agents with clearly defined roles and guidelines, businesses can reduce worker anxiety and foster seamless integration into daily tasks."

Also, it is important for employers to get clear about AI guidelines, as current employees and new professionals entering the workforce will gravitate to more supportive workplaces. Global workers with guidance to use AI saw a 13% increase in AI adoption since January, while global workers with no guidance to use AI only saw a 2% increase, from 8% to 10% since January. Close to 98% of Indian workers say that a prospective employer's ability to provide and enable workers on AI tools is a factor in their job search.

The report adds that 2 in 5 workers, globally, say they prefer working for companies that provide AI tools and enable their use. Globally, people in their first job are 1.8x times more likely to say AI enablement is a 'very important factor' in their job search.
